Holiday Outing Ends In Terror Aboard Vessel

Knife-Wielding Youths Riot; Teen-Agers Cut, Attacked In Lake Erie

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—A holiday outing ended in a voyage of terror for passengers aboard a Lake Erie amusement park vessel wednesday night as teen - agers rioted aboard the ship.

Reporters aboard the crowded Canadiana for the 15-mile trip from Crystal Beach amusement park in Ontario to this city described it as "a nightmare of flashing knives and sobbing, frightened" passengers.

Calls Disorders Racial

Cpl. J. E. Legate of the Ontario provincial police at Crystal Beach was quoted by the Buffalo Courier-Express as saying the disorders were "strictly racial."

But F. L. Hall, general manager of the amusement park, said the disturbance there was "not a race riot."

Six persons were treated for injuries at hospitals in Buffalo and Fort Erie, Ont., and at least 10 others were treated for minor injuries at a first aid station at the park.

Provincial police arrested nine Buffalo youths at the beach. Five were Negroes and four whites.

The Negro youths were charged with unlawful assembly and the whites with creating a disturbance. All were released under $500 bail each.

Three Negroes Arrested

Buffalo authorities took three Negro teen - agers into custody when the Canadiana docked here shortly before 11 p. m.

Police said no charges were placed against them immediately.

It was not known what set off the disturbances at the beach. An estimated 15,000 to 20,000 persons, mostly Americans, were reported at the park Wednesday.

Margaret Wynn and Dick Hirsch of the Buffalo Courier-Express, who were aboard the three-decked steamship, reported that "nearly 40 white youngsters, several beaten or cut, cowered below decks in the ship's dining room for most of the trip after being attacked or threatened by the many Negro teen-agers who made up the majority of the passengers."

The reporters estimated that of the approximately 1,000 passengers, 80 per cent were Negroes.

"Members of the ship's crew and private police," the reporters wrote, "vainly attempted to keep order, but when one fight was broken up, another flared in a different portion of the weather-beaten boat."

"Most of the trouble," they continued, "was caused by gangs of Negro girls who walked the deck, attacking and molesting young white girls.

"Firecrackers were carelessly flung at passengers, exploding at their feet. Several received powder burns. Switch-blade knives were brandished. Youngsters were shoved to the deck by the rampaging mobs which rushed back and forth over the decks.

"Many older white persons were segregated by worried crew members. They sat quietly in roped-off sections of the slow-moving ship, attempting to comfort their crying, terrified children."

One Killed, 5 Hurt In Traffic Accidents

A 66-year old pedestrian was killed instantly when he was struck by an auto while walking on Rt. 18 near Lake Milton at 4:15 a.m. Wednesday, the State Highway Patrol reported today.

According to the Canfield barracks of the patrol, Charles Anderson of Diamond, O., was killed when he was struck by a car driven by Dorothy Kemble, 35, of Lake Milton.

Anderson died of a crushed skull, severed trunk and severed right hand and left leg.

The body was taken to the southside Hospital in Youngstown. The driver was not held.

In other mishaps on area highways over the holiday, five persons were injured in four accidents involving six vehicles.

Eric Rosenfeld, 11, of Youngstown, is in fair condition at Southside Hospital in Youngstown with a fractured skull, multiple abrasions of the face and lacerations of the chin. He was a passenger in a car driven by Stuart Wilson, 35, of Youngstown who was involved in a three-car mishap on Rt. 46, two-tenths of a mile south of Canfield, at 8:35 a.m. Wednesday.

According to the highway patrol, Wilson's car struck the rear of a car operated by Glenn Bircher, 34, of Damascus, which had stopped on the road behind a halted car operated by Lola Smith, 18, of East Liverpool. The impact caused the Bircher auto to crash into the rear of the Smith vehicle.

Wilson received lacerations of the lower lip and was treated at Southside Hospital. He was cited for failure to stop within an assured clear distance.

Otto Sanzenbacher, 38, of Canfield, received multiple cuts of the face and arms in a one-car mishap on Fairgrounds Blvd., one - half mile east of Rt. 46 near Canfield, at 9:45 p.m. Wednesday.

The car crashed off the road into a ditch and struck a mail box, causing the windshield to splatter into the auto. The driver's injuries were treated by a Canfield physician.

Donald Finn, 24, of Youngstown is in good condition at Salem City Hospital with a fracture of the collarbone, cerebral concussion and multiple abrasions of the body.

He was injured when he lost control of his motorcycle on Rt. 14, two and one-half miles east of Salem, at 2:30 a.m. Wednesday. The motorcycle went off the left side of the road at a high rate of speed, throwing the cyclist to the ground.

Finn will be cited for reckless operation upon his release from the hospital.

Gerald R. Hawkins, 29, of Columbiana received minor injuries when he lost control of his auto while rounding a curve on Rt. 344, one-half mile west of Columbiana at midnight Tuesday. The car received heavy damage when it struck a utility pole and a railroad sign.

Hawkins was treated by a Columbiana physician for lacerations of the face. He was arrested by patrolmen for reckless operation.

Reds Blistered For Violations Of Armistice

Czech, Polish Members Of Commission Seen Hiding Illegal Activity

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — The U.N. Command said today it is calling off all operations of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission in South Korea and pulling team members back into the neutral zone.

The action was announced in a blistering statement accusing the North Korean Communists of armistice violations, and the Czech and Polish members of the commission of covering up illegal Red activities.

U.S. Maj. Gen. R. G. Gard charged the Communists had used the commission "as a blind" behind which to illegally move jet fighters and other war materiel into North Korea.

Violated Agreement

"You are no longer privileged to take advantage of those provisions of the armistice agreement which have been violated and frustrated by your conduct and that of the Czech and Polish members of the commission," Gard declared.

His statement was made at a meeting of the Joint Military Armistice Commission. The North Korean Communists denied Gard's accusations.

Gard, senior U.N. delegate to the armistice commission, said the Communists had never at any time since the armistice reported bringing combat aircraft into North Korea.

"This is particularly conspicuous," he asserted, "since your side now maintains in North Korea between 400 and 500 such aircraft . . . whereas you had none in that area at the time the armistice was signed."

Gard charged Czech and Polish officers with "fundamental perversion" of the commission and said the U.N. Command was "entitled to take steps necessary to protect itself from the consequences of such unwarranted conduct."

North Korean Col. Lo In Hi, in denying Gard's charges, said:

"Your side has unmasked its attempt to wreck the armistice agreement you will be held responsible for all the consequences arising from the unilateral action."

Airman-Soldier Wrangle Has History Dating Back 3 Decades

EDITOR'S NOTE—Following is the first of a two-part series recalling past instances of interservice bickering and revewing the latest flare-up of military rivalry.

By ELTON C. FAY
AP Military Affairs Reporter

WASHINGTON (AP)—A zealous pilot who dropped a sack of flour on an Army command post more than three decades ago probably touched off the airman-soldier wrangle over military missions.

The argument—stemming from pride of service and sincerity of purpose—has lived on. It is still here, new only in the cast of characters and the stage setting of guided missiles, jet planes and atomic weapons.

Details of the flour sack incident—the time, the place, the man—have been crowded from the record by all the angry words uttered since.

A few old soldiers and fliers recall that back in the early 1920s an Army maneuver was being carried out. The pilot of one of the stick-and-cloth biplanes was assigned to scout for the cavalry. He decided to inject a third dimension into battle. From a commissary he acquired a bag of flour. Flying over "enemy" headquarters, he dropped the flour, marking in white for all to see the spot where the "bomb" hit.

Art Of War Changes

As weapons and the art of war have changed, so have some of the doctrines and aspirations of the services.

The Army today has its own "organic aviation," planes and helicopters used for a variety of missions of the battlefield, including the airlift of small units of troops and the resupply of forward battle positions.

It has more. Today the Army has missiles—short-range rockets, antiaircraft guided missiles, medium-range bombardment guided missiles, a 300-mile range ballistic missile—and a project to build one of 1,500 miles range, the Jupiter.

Within the Air Force there is feeling that all this new flexibility of the Army means it is stretching its mission to intrude upon that of the Air Force.

One of the points now in controversy concerns an Air Force project to adopt and improve upon a Navy-designed antiaircraft missile, the Talos, to be used by the Air Force for defense of its own bases. It doesn't need or want the Army's Nike missile which, says the Air Force, with some support from the Defense Department, will be inferior in range and performance.

Carrier Program Grows

The growing Navy carrier program and the expanding heavy bomber project of the Air Force have added fuel to the fire.

Two top air generals recently pointed up the argument before congressional committees.

Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, chief of the strategic air command, says that in strategy-making "we never are able to plan definitely on the fleet because we don't know where they are going to be."

Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Air Force chief of staff, based his attack on two contentions:

1. The range of carrier-based planes "is relatively short" compared with that of land-based bombers.

2. "We must be realistic about such factors as the probable location of the carriers, as well as the amount of striking power they could contribute (to the strategic air offensive), which is small."

Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of naval operations, reiterates the Navy's publicly proclaimed position — its "primary role" is to maintain control of the sea.

Train Derails; Engineer Killed

2 Others Missing In West Virginia Crash

PARKERSBURG, W. Va. (AP) — The Baltimore and Ohio's westbound National Limited derailed coming out of a tunnel about 30 miles east of here early today. The engineer was killed and two other crewmen were missing.

Th diesel engine of the fast New York to St. Louis train apparently struck a boulder as it emerged from the tunnel in the rain-drenched Hughes River Valley. The engine and a baggage car overturned. Eleven cars to the rear were towed back to Clarksburg, then rerouted over a side line.

Several Passengers Hurt

Several passengers were treated for minor injuries but none was reported hurt seriously.

The engineer, J. C. Riley of Grafton, W. Va., was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital here.

Riley Shaver, an ambulance driver, said the engine lay in the swollen river, and the baggage car lay on its side at the tunnel's mouth.

Shaver brought back William Baum of Parkersburg, a mail clerk, who was treated for shock and sent home.

One passenger was hospitalized at Clarksburg.

Suffered Head Injury

Donald B. Crawley, 22, of Clarksburg, was treated for a head injury and was kept under observation. He boarded the train there enroute to Detroit.

The derailment occurred where the tracks emerge from the tunnel onto a bridge spannnig the usually small and placid stream. It is about halfway between Parkersburg and Clarksburg, near the small settlement of Cornwallis.

Missing were the fireman, identified as Paul R. Hooten of Grafton ,and another crew member, unidentified.

The five sleeping cars and their destinations were listed as follows: One en route to Louisville, two to St. Louis; one from Washington to Fort Worth, Texas, and one from Washington to Dallas.

Salineville Man Guilty of Murder

Roy Hunter, 18, Gets 35-Year Prison Term

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — Roy Allen Hunter, 18, a Salineville, O., airman, was found guilty of murder with malice and sentenced to 35 years in prison Tuesday night for the slaying of Jack Spangler, 26, city tax office employe.

During the trial, Hunter maintained he shot Spangler in self defense after Spangler made improper advances toward him. He testified he fired after Spangler made advances and grabbed the gun. He said he was afraid Spangler might kill him or injure him seriously if he resisted.

The state contended that Hunter killed Spangler with robbery as a motive.

The body of the city tax employe was found on a lonely road between Wichita Falls and Sheppard Air Force Base, where Hunter was stationed. The slaying occurred Dec. 16, and Hunter was arrested some weeks later near Tracy, California, with Spangler's car.

Hunter told the court that after the shooting he returned to Sheppard Air Force Base and left the following day for home on leave.

During the trial, Sheriff Weldon Bailey said Hunter drove Spangler's car to his home in Ohio, the day of the shooting, got married and returned to the air base Jan. 3.

He left the base soon after arriving there, Bailey said, and was arrested in California.

In the trial, Atty. J. Warren Bettis of Lisbon participated as defense counsel, assisting defense attorney Sam B. Spence of Wichita Falls.

Sisters Of The Swish To Wear Sesqui Garb

Calico, gingham and silk creations will be in evidence on city streets tomorrow when the Salem Sisters of the Swish don their sesqui attire of bonnets, dresses, skirts, old-fashioned blouses.

The sisters will "swish" up and down city streets all day Friday in accordance with the rules set up by the charter sisters at the organization meeting.

The rules say that bonnets and hats are to be worn each day up to sesqui week and costumes must be worn on Friday.

After the observance begins next Saturday, June 9, costumes and bonnets must be worn each day by the sisters.

Will Question 2 Youths About Akron Crimes

Two Akron juveniles, 13 and 17, were released from the county jail to Summit County authorities Wednesday for questioning in connection with several Akron burlgaries and the theft of a truck from Akron.

The pair was arrested by the State Highway Patrol after sideswiping two autos and a truck in Salineville while driving an allegedly stolen truck. State Highway patrolmen said the truck was stolen from an Akron truck rental lot.

Patrolmen said that after the hitskip accidents, the youths attempted to avoid police by abandoning the truck and fleeing into a woods north of Salineville. They were captured when they left the woods and attempted to hitchhike on Rt. 164 north.

The State Highway Patrol had four cruisers patrollin gthe roads about the woods and were aided in the search by county authorities and Wellsville and Salineville police.

Prosecution Suffers Setback As Bishop Refutes Statement

LISBON — The prosecution received a setback in the burglary trial of suspended East Liverpool policeman Ira Cunningham and Jerry Raimond, special patrolman, this morning here as Dallas Bishop refuted a 12-page statement linking him and the two defendants to the 1954 entering of the Berman Lumber Co.

Asked by Atty. G. William Brokaw, assistant prosecutor, if he had ever been in the lumber company with Cunningham and Raimond, the former special officer answered firmly, "I have not."

Surprised, Brokaw asked him sharply, "Is that your answer?" and the witness replied, "I told you the other night."

In later testimony, Bishop, who pleaded guilty to the Berman burglary, said he had received a threatening telephone call recently and explained he had been confused and nervous since the start of the police investigation in East Liverpool in March.

Atty. Brokaw told Judge Joel H. Sharp that the witness had surprised him aad asked permission to cross-exam. It was granted.

As he went into the details of the Salineville man's confession, Atty. Frank Springer, counsel for Raimond, objected. And Atty. Sam Feckett, attorney for Cunningham, asked that the question of the statement be argued with the jury excused. Springer said that when he filed a motion last month for permission to see any written statement, Prosecutor James L. McDonald said no written statements would be used.

McDonald interrupted and said he had told Springer no written statement would be used as evidence. He said Bishop's statement was not being used as evidence but only to refresh the witness's memory.

The panel was excused and Bishop, nervously swinging from side to side in his chair, was quizzed by Brokaw and Judge Sharp about

157 Persons Sign To Donate Blood

One hundred fifty-seven persons have signed up to give blood when the Red Cross bloodmobile visits Salem Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the American Legion Home.

Twenty-three more signees are needed to bring the total to the required 180. The quota for the bloodmobile visit is 125 pints of blood.

Because of cancellations and inability of some of the volunteers to give blood for health or other reasons, the number of signers must exceed the number of pints sought to meet the quota.

All blood donors will be given the opportunity to cast one thousand votes for their favorite candidate in the sesqui queen contest through the cooperation of the sesquicentennial committee and the local Red Cross chapter.

A special ballot box will be located at the unit where queen votes may be deposited.

In the bloodmobile's 10 previous visits to the city the goal has never been reached. The chapter is in arrears in its donations as compared with the number of pints of blood used at the city's two hospitals and by Salem patients at other hospitals.

Appointments may be made by calling ED 2-5219 when definite times will be given so that donors need not wait in line.

Falling Tree Damages Home At Country Club

Considerable damage was caused Wednesday afternoon at about 4:30 when a heavy gust of wind uprooted a huge oak tree which fell against the Salem Country Club home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilson Koenreich.

The tree, about 100 feet tall, damaged the house, tore down utility wires and ruined lawn furniture. The damage is covered by insurance.

Other scattered damages to power facilities were caused by the wind which accompanied yesterday afternoon's downpour, but service was not disrupted anywhere in the area for any great length of time.

Twining To Visit Moscow June 24

Other Invitations To U. S. Leaders Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some informed U.S. officials believe Moscow will follow up its successful bid to Gen. Nathan F. Twining with invitations to other American military leaders to visit Russia.

Members of the Soviet high command may be asked to come to the United States in return.

Secretary of the Air Force Donald A. Quarles announced Wednesday that "with the authorization of the President" Twining had accepted an invitation to a Soviet Aviation Day celebration June 24. Twining, Air Force chief of staff, will be accompanied by several subordinate officers.

Wilson, Dulles Approve

Quarles said the decision to accept had been approved also by Secretary of Defense Wilson and Secretary of State Dulles, who is presently on a 10-day vacation. The Russian Embassy was advised of the decision.

Thus ended half a dozen days of speculation.

The decision for Twining to accept was speeded by a weekend report from Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen in Moscow making clear the bid was a firm one. This indicated that the Soviet government was not interested for the moment in inviting other members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff for a tour of Russian military establishments.

Comments from the White House and Defense Department showed they would welcome a broadened invitation, but when it became evident that this would not be promptly forthcoming the decision was made for Twining to accept.

Two Risky Alternatives

As a matter of policy, it appears that Soviet moves for increasing military contacts with the United States have confronted Eisenhower and his chief advisers with a choice of difficult and risky alternatives.

The central problem is this:

1. How can the United States enter into friendlier military relations with Russia without causing its allies and the free world generally to lower its guard and relax vigilance against Soviet communism?

2. On the other hand, can the United States afford to cold-shoulder Soviet moves for more normal relations in the military field without appearing to other countries to have a kind of Iron Curtain of its own?

Eisenhower himself is described as convinced that more and closer American-Russian contact are in themselves desirable in the interest of peace.

Church Raps Segregation

Presbyterian Group Urges Minority Rights

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. has adopted a report calling for total elimination of racial segregation in this country.

The report adopted Wednesday at the conclusion of the assembly's 168th annual meeting was directed toward employers, homeowners and politicians.

"Nowhere in this land," said the report, "can Negroes, and to a lesser extent other minority persons escape the indignity of segregation or discrimination in one form or another."

It recommended specifically that:

1. Christians preparing to sell their homes keep uppermost in their minds "the need of minority families for equal housing opportunities . . . and make their houses available to all qualified purchasers regardless of race."

2. Employers take all necessary steps to "break the pattern of discrimination in employment."

3. Politicians "work for the removal of the poll tax and other restrictions which prevent many American citizens from exercising their legal rights . . ."

74 Golfers To Vie For Berths In Open

CLEVELAND (AP) — Seventy-four golfers will shoot for four places in the 36-hole northern Ohio qualifier for the National Open golf tournament at Hawthorne Valley Country Club Monday.

The field includes 48 professionals and 26 amateurs, including 20 who have qualified in past years. The four leaders will be eligible for the National Open at Rochester, N. Y., June 14-16.

Three of last year's four northern Ohio qualifiers are entered again. They are Ted Huge, Cleveland professional, and two amateurs, Eddie Meister of Kirtland and Dr. Frank Bellino of Youngstown.

The qualifying record score for this district is held by Ralph Bond of Lyndhurst, who fired 72-65—137 at Akron Fairlaw in 1949.

Entries from outside Greater Cleveland, and their starting times if the morning and afternoon include: ("A" denotes amateur).

Christian Church Class Meets With Glecklers

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gleckler of Ridgewood Drive were hosts to the Gold Star Class of the Christian Church Saturday evening.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Don Schnurrenberger. "Let Your Light Shine" was the devotional theme used by Mrs. Allen Wright.

Stationery was distributed with the proceeds going to the church building fund. Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Charles Cooper will be co-chairmen for a wedding reception to be served in August.

The June 24 meeting will be held at Red Maple Landing at Guilford Lake. Arden Crumbaker is in charge of the arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Schnurrenberger assisted the hosts when lunch was served.

Snead Favored In Rich Texas Open

DALLAS (AP)—Texas' biggest golf tournament both in money and quality—the $70,000 Texas International Open—started today with Sam Snead in the familiar role of favorite but with a score of others strongly backed.

It's the second half of Dallas' $100,000 golf show. Don January, the Abilene, Tex., freshman to pro ranks, won the first one, the $30,000 Dallas Centennial Open, last weekend.

January is in this tournament too but isn't among the favorites.

He plays in the opening round today with Gene Littler, Singing Mills, Calif., and Freddie Haas, New Orleans.

Snead, who fired a 3-under-par 67 over the 6,216-yard Preston Hollow Country Club course Wednesday but still complained about his putting, hits his first tee shot for keeps this afternoon, being in a threesome with Wally Ulrich, Rochester, Minn., and Dick Mayer St. Petersburg, Fla.

Some observers figured the Texas International might be between Snead and Ben Hogan, the Fort Worth great. They are longtime rivals. Both Snead and Hogan have been playing well from tee to green and as Jimmie Demaret, another well-liked entry, says, "Hogan will start putting and boy how he will move."

Hogan had 277 to tie for 13th place in the Centennial Open.

High School Students Presented Awards

Miss Rita Joseph, business manager of the two organs, presented the awards which were certificates for one-year service, bronze pins for two years' work, and silver pins for three years.

Fred Burchfield, business advisor of the two publications, awarded Miss Joseph with a business manager pin.

Students receiving awards were Nancy Dan, one year; Sandra Galone; Sue Henning, two; Robert Jones , two; Jackie Julian, one; Rose Ann Labriola, one; Patty Lavelle, two; Carol Lehwald, two; Rosalie Lisi, one; Gwen Lutz, two, Gerry Pastorelli, two; Loretta Spears, one; Mathilde Umbach, three; Penny Willis, one; Joan Strojek, one; Carol Lodge, one; Judy Holzinger, one; Carol Hawkins, one; Cally Callahan, one; Mary Barcus, one.

The staff which met its weekly deadline for the newspaper and annual also oversold the number of ads available for the yearbook space.

Lisbon Memorial Day Service Attracts 500

LISBON — About 500 persons gathered at the village cemetery for the annual Memorial Day program sponsored by the American Legion and VFW posts here.

State Rep. Clarence Wetzel was the main speaker.

About 350 persons lined the streets to watch the parade to the cemetery.

Minnesota, Ohio U. Seek Tourney Spot

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Big Ten champion Minnesota and Mid-American Conference king Ohio University meet in a best-of-three series for the NCAA district four baseball championship here Friday and Saturday.

The winner advances to the college world series at Omaha beginning June 9.

Minnesota walloped Notre Dame Wednesday, 15-5 and 10-1, to win a best-of-three series. Ohio U. came from behind with a five-run eighth inning to clip Cincinnati in a "sudden death" single game, 8-6.

The opener of a best-of-three series between Ohio U. and Cincinnati was rained out Tuesday and the teams decided on the "sudden death" contest.

Scotty Greisheimer socked a two-run homer to start the Bobcats' rally and Ron Nakatsuji lined a single which broke a 6-6 deadlock.

The Bobcats and Gophers meet in a single game Friday. A doubleheader is scheduled Saturday. But should the winner of Friday's game repeat in the Saturday opener, the third game will not be necessary.

Ohioans Record Safe Holiday

Only 6 Accidental Deaths Reported

By The Associated Press

Ohioans observed a relatively safe and sane Memorial Day. Only six accidental deaths were reported from 6 p. m. Tuesday to last midnight.

Four deaths occurred in traffic accidents.

The worst accident killed a 16-year-old Ironton girl and hospitalized eight other persons. A car carrying eight teenagers crashed into another car and overturned in a small creek. The other driver was critically injured.

The list of fatalities:

Tuesday night:

George E. Fenton, 47, Greenfield, thrown out of a car when it collided with a bus on Ohio 28 about 10 miles north of Hillsboro.

Nick Marion, 60, Youngstown, when a crane he had been repairing moved and crushed him against a supporting column at the U. S. Steel Corp. plant in Youngstown.

Wednesday:

Charles E. Anderson, 66, Diamond, hit by an automobile on Ohio 18 near the intersection of Ohio 534 in Mahoning county.

Frank Upton, 48, Maple Heights, of injuries received Tuesday night when he was hit by an automobile in that Cleveland suburb.

Becky Davidson, 16, Ironton, when the car in which she was riding hit another auto and overturned on Ohio 75, five miles north of Ironton.

Carl F. Richards, 40, Rt. 1, Lakeview, Logan County, crushed to death when he fell from a fright train in the New York Central yards in Springfield.

Lausche Says Patriotism Isn't Old-Fashioned

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche says "peace will be attained in the world only when tyrants are brought to their knees and free men rule".

The governor spoke at a Memorial Day service in the little 137-year-old Hickory Flat cemetery, five miles north of here. Several hundred persons attended the ceremony at which a veterans' memorial was dedicated.

Declaring that "patriotism is not old-fashioned," the governor said:

"We must realize the full meaning of the strength and liberties under which we live. . . Let us visualize and imagine what the dead would say to us if we let their sacrifices be in vain."

Water Skier Swept Over Brink Of Falls

TWIN FALLS, Idaho (AP) — The swift-running Snake River swept a water skier over the brink of 212-foot Shoshone Falls Wednesday as outlookers taking the Memorial Day sun watched in horror from the shore.

Still missing today was the body of 32-year-old Melvin W. Hulbert of Boise, Idaho.

Witnesses said Hulbert lost his balance and fell into the water of a lagoon about 1,000 yards upstream from the falls, one of the highest cataracts in the west. He splashed around in the water, apparently unconcerned, while the current edged him ever closer to the lip of the falls.

"About 200 feet from the falls he seemed to realize he was in trouble," one witness said. The boat which had been towing him and another craft made desperate, dangerous last-minute passes in an attempt to rescue him almost at the brink.

Last Widow of Comanche Chief Visits His Grave

CACHE, Okla. (AP) — Quanah Parker was remembered Wednesday by Topay, the last surviving widow of the famed Comanche Indian chief.

The old and crippled Indian woman visited Parker's grave and said she is "looking forward to joining him." The great chief died 45 years ago, but Topay, the last of his eight wives, has lost track of her age. She admits to having married Parker when she was 25.

Ohio To Get $117 Million, Perhaps More, In Road Funds

c 2 czzlbyl kl 304aes 31

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio stands to get $117,700,000, perhaps more, in federal funds in the next two years for construction of new superhighways.

The amount may be as much as 161 million dollars, depending on a compromise which Senate and House conferees must reach before the multi-million-dollar highway bill can be sent to the White House.

The Senate bill, passed Tuesday night, calls for the smaller amount. Ohio would get $1,059,800,000 over the 13-year period for which the program is planned. The House bill calls for $1,452,100,000 for the Buckeye state.

Whether the program will effect the Ohio Turnpike is not clear.

An official of the Bureau of Public Roads said the federal government would not be disposed to "ruin" the turnpike's business by laying a free superhighway next to it.

Ultimately, the question will be up to the Ohio Highway Department, which has before it a proposal to build a second turnpike from Conneaut to Cincinnati.

Sen. George Bender (R-Ohio) brought up the proposed turnpike in debating on the highway bill.

"I believe that highway planning experts alone can determine whether or not the north-south highway can be built most effectively as a turnpike project or a freeway," Bender said.

CONTINUES PROBE OF DEATH

CLEVELAND (AP)—Coroner Samuel R. Gerber wants to talk to four more persons before ruling on the death of Mrs. Sophie Sarnecki, 40-year-old Valley View tavern operator. She was found shot through the chest at her tavern last week.

The coroner said the investigation to date has not ruled out suicide or accidental death.

Post Offices Being Probed By Congressmen

CLEVELAND (AP) — Post offices in Warren, Youngstown and Cleveland are being inspected today by staff investigators of a House Government Operations subcommittee.

An aide said they want to discover whether the post office department violated regulations in purchasing vehicles from Twin Coach Co., Kent, Ohio.

The vehicles were purchased on an experimental basis and include "standup trucks," in which the driver stands.

The committee, headed by Rep. Mollohan (D-W. Va.), plans to open hearings on post office procurement policies Monday.

Sub Under Par

Time has flown since those much-discussed contracts for supplemental unemployment benefits were being negotiated by employers and unions a year ago.

It is ironic that their first test is going to occur in the first industry to adopt them. On June 1, furloughed auto workers become eligible for benefits in the week beginning June 4, but benefits will be small and beneficiaries relatively few.

To be eligible for any benefits at all, a worker must have been laid off after May 2; tens of thousands of auto workers had been laid off before that date.

In actual practice, only a few weeks' benefits will be received. These will be small, moreover, because the trust funds from which all benefits must be paid are now only about one fourth filled.

In Ohio, furthermore, which is rapidly becoming the equivalent of Michigan as an auto producer, no worker will be allowed to draw supplemental unemployment benefits as a net addition to his state unemployment compensation.

Thus, the first test of this new idea for stabilizing industrial compensation is occurring at a time and under circumstances unfavorable to its hoped-for success a year ago when it was initiated.

No one is happy about this, least of all the Ford Co., which made the first agrement with United Auto Workers. Ford Co. policy has been to solicit business support for SUB as an antidote for the guaranted annual wage as well as an antidote for the loss of buying power that always follows layoffs in the auto industry. National Association of Manufacturers, on the other hand, has opposed both guaranteed annual wage ideas and SUB, on the premise that they cannot help but be hurtful to the national economy. Its approval has been given, instead, to a plan of deferred wages held in savings accounts.

Killer At Large

Traffic accidents have been road-hogging the headlines as the killer at large, but another less spectacular killer is at large on the streets of American cities, too.

Scientists studying the rising frequency of human lung cancer have taken samples of polluted air from eight municipalities and have concluded: 'Automobile exhaust seems to be the No. 1 culprit."

Dr. Clarence A. Mills of the University of Cincinnati, one of the nation's leading air pollution authorities, reports that Cincinnati men traveling 12,000 miles or more a year in motor traffic are moving into the danger zone of lung cancer. He adds that tobacco smoking heightens the hazard in every category.

Dr. Milis further warns that "lung cancer is today's greatest killer among respiratory diseases, and the part played by exhaust fumes will have a direct bearing on the tendency of urban populations to live far out and drive in." He adds that the load of so much traffic driving has brought the worker almost to the breaking point.

California scientists studying rising frequency of lung cancer collected polluted air and gasoline engine exhausts from eight cities, reduced the samples to a tarry mass, painted this on mice and produced cancer in all of them.

In New York City the Department of Health found that up to 176 tons of solid matter, including half a ton of tarry matter, settled out from the air onto every square mile of Manhatan each month.

Smoke abatement legislation has proved successful in Pittsburgh and St. Louis. Exhaust after-burners on automobiles is one way to reduce exposure to traffic fumes. Automotive engineers have their work cut out for them in discovering other ways to eliminate pollution.

Perhaps the atomic motor will bring answer.

The Price Of Progress

School has ended in districts that favor short Christmas and Easter vacations over June closings—and for most of us this will be the end of school worries until next September.

But the worries will not go away merely because they are neglected. More children will grow up to school age during the next three months. More children will be born this summer to grow up to school age in six years.

More families will move into growing neighborhoods to swamp more overcrowded schools with pupils. More taxpayers, confronted with all this evidence of a problem in human progress, will wring their hands and wonder, "Whither?"

The answer to their wonderment is simple. The school problem will go away when there are no more children; when the population quits increasing. It will cease to be when there is no more progress.

In the meantime, the price of progress will have to be paid. And it will be high.

There will be no school vacation for taxpayers.

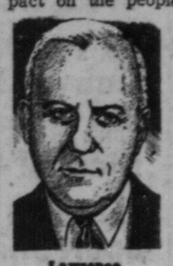
Cold War Blunder

By DAVID LAWRENCE

West Fails To Utilize Best Weapon Against Reds

WASHINGTON

When the Soviet government wants to make a psychological move and weigh the probable impact on the people of Britain or America, they call in Messrs. Burgess and Maclean, who know intimately the Western democracies — their gullibility and their political weaknesses.



Lawrence

When the United States is confronted with a move that could affect the psychology of the peoples behind the iron curtain, nobody with a knowledge of the peoples behind the iron curtain, nobody with a knowledge of the processes of reasoning of the Russians sits in at the top councils. Decisions usually are made on the basis of what American officials think is or will be the Russian reaction.

Thus, today there is a big problem facing decision by the United States government. It is whether to open the way for the United States Joint Chiefs of Staff to visit Moscow and to let the highest military commanders of the Soviet regime come here.

On the face of it, the American mind sees nothing wrong with it —just another means of creating a better "climate for peace."

BUT THE MEN who have knowledge of the Russian underground — the emigres who have fled from behind the iron curtain — are constantly warning that the United States must not appear to be giving sanction to permanent rule by the Moscow tyrants over the satellite states and a continued enslavement of the people of Soviet Russia.

Every since the Geneva Conference of 1954, the Moscow government has been playing up the idea that the United States accepts the "status quo" in eastern Europe. Many Americans, including George Kennan of the Truman administration's policy-making group and now an adviser to Adlai Stevenson, think it's all right to abandon the peoples behind the iron curtain.

Potential trouble for the Moscow regime, however, is imbedded in the satellite states and among the people inside Soviet Russia who still believe the United States will not forsake them.

DR. VLADIMIR POREMSKY, president of the National Alliance of Russian Solidarists — an organization that carries on underground activities in the Soviet Union — flew to America a few days ago and, in a copyrighted interview in U.S. News & World Report this week, he discusses the recent visit of Khrushchev and Bulganin to England. He says:

"I think Khrushchev and Bulganin have a double aim. The first aim, which we consider the main one, is to consolidate their prestige within their own country by showing their people that they are being well received abroad, and to use this prestige to stifle domestic opposition. They strive particularly to deprive their people of the hope of support from the free world.

"Their second aim, which we regard as secondary, is to try once more to deceive the West, in accordance with the Leninist line to which they have now returned. Lenin was very optomistic concerning the possibility of fooling people in the West, because he thought that there were many fools there."

"What is your opinion concerning the wisdom or the unwisdom of the Geneva Conference?" he was asked. Here is his reply:

"I think that, because of the prevailing atmosphere in the world today, because of everyone's fear of war, it would have been difficult to avoid the meeting at Geneva. Personally, I would rather it had not taken place. Whether or not such meetings can be avoided in the future will depend on public opinion in the West. Only public opinion can give the Western governments solid ground to stand upon in refusing to participate in such meetings."

GEN. TWINING, chief of the U.S. Air Force, probably will go to Moscow for the air show next month along with air generals from Britain and France. But if the Russians invite the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff as a whole and the invitation is accepted, then the Russian chiefs will want to come here, too. It would mean also that Khrushchev and Bulganin would feel that the United States could not fail to invite them. A number of Military missions from Soviet Russia then would probably go to the Latin American capitals. This would aid the infiltration propaganda of the Soviets.

All this is in the face of the fact that sixteen nations which made military sacrifices to support the United Nations in Korea cannot even get permission for a general or any other military officer to visit North Korean camps where the armistice has been violated, especially in building up airfields.

THE NEUTRAL supervisory commission of the U.N. has given up all hope of being able to go into North Korea. Yet visits by American military men to Moscow are applauded in free America in certain quarters and there is a steady drive encouraged by many well-meaning persons to invite Khrushchev and Bulganin to come here.

In propaganda the Soviets are outmaneuvering America largely because they have men in Moscow who understand the Western democracies. But in Washington evidently the Russians who have turned on the Kremlin and who understand Russia are not consulted when policy decisions are being made that could vitally affect the psychology of the peoples behind the iron curtain. Small wonder the "cold war" is going against us.

The Senators Weren't Looking

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—"You did it when we weren't looking."

That is the complaint some senators made against the rest of the Senate for inserting—in the new superhighway program — a few sentences which, if they stand, may cause confusion for years.

It is true some weren't looking. Some weren't listening either. And some weren't there.

The Senate debated Monday, and 14 hours Tuesday, before approving a bill to create over the next 13 years a 40,000-mile network of superhighways costing the federal government about 25 billion dollars and the states about 2½ billions.

Since the federal government will pay most of the bill, Sen. Chavez (D-Nm) proposed the government should decide the wage rates for men who build the network. He said the secretary of labor should do the deciding.

This wasn't unusual. Under a law passed in 1931 the labor secretary decides wage rates for workers on projects paid for by the government. This applies to contracts for direct federal construction as well as to contracts for schools, hospitals, housing, airports and other facilities built with federal-aid funds.

The secretary decides what the prevailing rate is in the area for the same kind of work—in this case it would be roadbuilding—and says that should be the wage rate for the highway builder.

There were a lot of objections, particularly from Southern Democrats, including Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark).

Their arguments, boiled down, ran like this: What area would the secretary select as a yardstick? An area close to where a strip of highway is to be built or some city 100 miles away where wages might be higher? What would happen to the economy of a rural area if the secretary fixed wage rates for roadbuilders out of line with wages paid nearby farmhands? Would they quit the farms to work on the roads?

Besides, so the arguments went, the labor secretary shouldn't have final say. The states—this was the states' rights argument — should have a voice in deciding rates.

Fulbright suggested it might be well to let anyone who disagreed with the labor secretary appeal to the courts. Opponents argued this might foul up the whole highway program, get it snarled in court fights all over the United States for years.

The Senate finally approved Chavez's idea: the labor secretary should decide the rates. But it was a day of confusion on the floor. And just about dinner time Fulbright got up again, proposing as an amendment to Chavez's proposal that anyone disagreeing with the secretary's wage rates could appeal to the courts.

The Senate quickly voted for this. Sometime later Sen. Douglas (D-Ill), an opponent of Fulbright's amendment, realized what had happened. He asked the Senate to reconsider.

He hadn't heard the amendment read, he said, because there was too much disorder on the floor at the time.

He said he doubted many senators knew what they were voting for. Sen. Morse (D-Ore) said he didn't know about it because he was out to dinner. Sen. Gore (D-Tenn) said he didn't realize it either. His back was turned at the time, he said.

The Senate let the Fulbright amendment stand. But the Senate bill differs from a similar measure passed by the House which said the labor secretary should decide wage rates but didn't provide for any appeal to the courts.

There can be no highway law until both houses iron out their differences. The Senate may bow to the House and agree to drop the Fulbright amendment.

The News invites letters from readers on all important current subjects. The letters should be brief, not to exceed 200 words and must bear the signature and address of the writer to insure publication. Letters with anonymous signatures will not be published.

Firing That Earth Satellite

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

PATRICK AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. — (NEA) — "T-time" in the "green room" for "Vanguard" may bring a new era in world history.

"Vanguard" is the name of the earth satellite.

The "green room" is the central control point at this long-range guided missile test center.

"T-time" is the code term for the moment of firing.

Only a few Vanguard project people have arrived for the firing—some time after July 1, 1957. But the procedures developed for missile firings will be those used for Vanguard.

T-time minus five hours will find tension growing among the dozen or so control men as they face elaborate sets of dials, instruments, huge scanning screens and charts in the green room.

One controller will be in contact with the aircraft monitoring the electronis spectrum over the range The area extends southeast over the Bahama Islands, Puerto Rico and beyond Ascension Island which is 700 miles northwest of St. Helena Island near the middle of the South Atlantic.

He'll be sure there is no interference by radio signals from ships or islands. TV signals bouncing around from unusual weather conditions could also interfere with the data Vanguard will be sendinb back as it screams toward its orbit in space.

One controller will be directing aircraft and fast patrol boats whose mission is to warn away all sea and air traffic in the vicinity which may have missed previous warnings about the area.

Large yellow metal balls will be hoisted on 90-foot poles located close to the exact point of firing. This warns small craft that "the range is hot."

Another controller will be in constant touch with the men working on the large concrete launching pad as they fuel the huge three-stage rocket and check the thousands of details necessary for the firing.

Also in the green room will be experts making the most minute weather checks possible. Even minor weather changes could force a postponement of T-time.

Another control man will be checking the telemetering channels used for transmission of vital information from the rocket back to earth. This will include the speed of the rocket, its location in space, it tremperature and its attitude in the air..

At some moment after T-time minus one-hour a voice will boom out in the green room "the range is ready."

If nothing goes wrong after that, T-time will find every human in the green room concentrating as carefully as is humanly possible on this particular assignment.

However, one man in the green room will have the most vital of all decisions to make during the next several minutes. He will be an Air Force officer. His finger will rest lightly on a button marked "destruct."

A slight pressure on it will detonate, by radio control, a charge of explosive in the rocket. It will send the fruits of thousands of hours of intense scientific work and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of equipment and instruments crashing into the sea.

This officer will watch the progress of the rocket on a radar screen as it roars off the launching pad. On one side of the screen is a red mark called the "destruct line." If something happens to the rocket's course, sending it toward the mainland of Florida, this officer will be forced to apply that pressure.

If he must, the Vanguard personnel can only pray that the next one of 15 such rockets which will be fired in the program will be more successful.

They Did It Themselves

By TRUMAN TWILL

And so it came about in the course of events that all people did all things for themselves, the way they had been urged to believe they should do.

Jacks and Jills of All Trades - and masters of none - were everywhere. Men were cutting their own hair, women were making their own clothes and little boys and girls were running their own school systems.

People were building their own houses, writing their own books and preaching their own sermons. Housewives were baking their own bread, breadwinners were raising their own wheat, vegetarians were raising their own vegetables and meat-eaters were raising pigs in vacant lots.

Litigants were practicing law in their own behalf, and the ailing were rolling their own pills. Every household had its own assortment of tools for plumbing, carpentering, masonry and electric wiring.

Householders were doing their own landscaping, their own painting, glazing, tinsmithing and paperhanging. They were doing their own exterminatig, furace maintaining and roofing.

They were making their own music, their own stage shows and movies, their own soap and their own shoes - all with the aid of do-it-yourself kits with easy to follow directions enclosed.

They were building their own automobiles, airplanes and boats. They were buildig furniture, repairing their own household appliances and even making up their own minds, with no assistance from manufacturers of preformed opinions.

Hungry men were mixing their own salads and doing their own cooking, without depending on culinary exerts. Ambitious women were making their own way in the world without relying on the proverbial willingness of the male to bring home the bacon.

Citizens tired of holes in the streets were repairing them in person, without waiting for the red tape of public administration to be untangled. Football players were calling their own signals and making their own substitutions.

Politicians were making their own decisions. Kids were buildng their own toys and thinking up their own amusement. Slobs were pulling up their own socks. Mopes were pulling their own chestnuts out of the fire, and statesmen were even fighting their own wars.

Able-bodied adults were making their own beds. The weak-kneed were standing on their own feet. The spineless were holding up their own heads and doing their own thinking. Emerson's essay on "Self Reliance" was a chronic best-seller, and the foresighted were digging their own graves and tooling out their own burial boxes.

Everybody was working his heart out, putting in upward of 80 hours a week, due to the fact not everybody could do all these things equally well and it sometimes took a week for some fumbler to perform a task that skilled hands and minds could have knocked off in half a day.

That was when some genius had the wonderful idea of starting a campaign to encourage everybody to believe it would be a good idea to rely on experts who would know how to do the tasks, with neatness and dispatch and thereafter let every shoemaker stick to his last. It was a revolutionary wrinkle and it spread like wildfire.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

The Militia and the Autoist

Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut is putting national guardsmen on the highway in fleet jeeps over summer holidays in an extra vigorous drive against law-busting auto drivers. We don't expect too much from the idea. Our highway observations convince us that it will take tanks, commandoes and guerillas (with air support) to win the fight against the half-baked, irresponsible, inconsiderate, screw-bally, 100 per cent selfish potential killers "making like crazy" on the open roads over holidays and week ends. The 1956 auto driver is a baddie and a mental case. The militia is no match for him. If we were a national guardsman in a jeep on any holiday we would take to the open fields as a matter of self-protection.

GOV. RIBICOFF specified that his militia would act only as a deterrent, without power to arrest. It was authorized only to display signs and make appeals. Our fear is that through the season of 1956 the state national guard will lose more fenders than the motorists. And we believe many a stalwart militiaman, noted for bravery, will be scared stiff as he watches Mr. John Q. Citizen on the loose in a motor car.

A soldier may have heroic qualities when meeting vicious attacks in a world war, but when asked to lick the zany, wild - eyed, pitiless, law bbusting, signal sneering, rule breaking, horse - sense - lacking toughie, operating as the Typical American autoist, he is being called on for bravery beyond the call of duty.

THE MILITIA has filled glorious pages in American history. But never before has he been called on to fight modern - day autoists. Militiamen beat the British in colonial days but there were no truck drivers or weekend joyriders in the British ranks. The minutemen won the day at Lexington. but the foe did not consist of a gang of irresponsible licensees trying to make altitude records in station-wagons.

Connecticut's militiamen are brave and resolute lads. But the American autoist is getting worse and worse. His mystery weapon is his belief that, once at the wheel of car, he becomes monarch of all he surveys and master of everybody he hits. And the army and air branch of the services can never handle him. It will take help from the U. S. Fleet.

TWO HUNDRED TWENTY THOUSAND shares of Standard Oil of New Jersey were put onto the market suddenly in a private sale the other day.. .No word of it to the general public except through an advertisement on the day of the sale, although brokers, of course, had the picture ahead. ..Izzat nize?

Mickey Mantle has big chance to equal Babe Ruth's home run record, in which case the big job will be to remodel him for built-in temperament and pushbutton color.

This column wonders what Hollywood will do to Andy Griffith, sensational star of "No Time for Sergeants" who will enter movies...Ninety per cent of his appeal lies in his lack of affectation; his complete naturalness and the "early Will Rogers" mood of a kid fresh from the sticks. ..Many a performer has gone to Hollywood with such qualities and had them rubbed out fast.

Locust Grove, L.I., is to have the first trailer bank! . . . Here, obviously will be the money that gets around.

Producers of "Medic" say NBC is unfair in its handling of the program, rumored in cancellation stage. . . . They don't like the station's OPERATIONS! ! !

Jackie Gleason is reported being sought to play the straight role of a priest in a TV presentation "The Edge of Heaven." This brings cries of "Oh, no!" from many homes. . . . Jackie's most surprising quality is his ability to switch from the comic to the serious mood, and his versatility is amazing, but the idea of a priestly role being played by a performer famed as the world's top TV comedian and known for pretty boisterous comedy routines is hard to take.

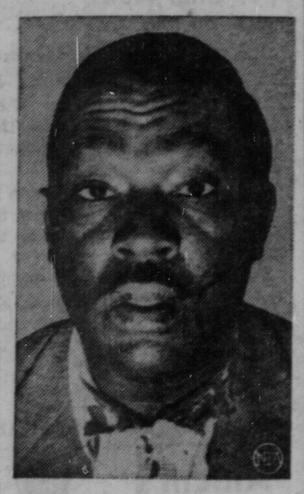
She was picked by her fiance, Midshipman Robert Salisbury Cecil, of San Francisco, commander of the winning Color Company.



HELD IN COP KILLING — Shown in a Toledo, O., jail is John Bowens, 35, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Following his arrest for allegedly shooting to death Lucas County Sheriff's Deputy Raymond Westover, 29. Bowens and two companions had been stopped by the police officers for questioning when suddenly Bowens opened fire killing Westover. Bowens then jumped in his car and while attempting to elude a roadblock, he lost control of the car, which leaped a curb killing Miss Martin, 19, of Toledo, and injuring Alva J. Francis, 31, a blind man she was helping cross the street.

Argument Ends In Death Of Policeman

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A Memorial Day argument with his wife ended in death for an off-duty San Francisco policeman.

Lt. Al Nelder said Patrolman Roland Holm, 32, handed his revolver to his wife and told her to shoot herself.

When she didn't, Holm said: "All right, shoot me, then. You're a coward."

Nelder quoted Holm's 34-year-old wife:

"When he gave me the gun, I just grabbed it and it went off. I don't know what happened. It went off so fast I thought he was just faking. I didn't want to hurt him. I love him. He's my husband. He put the gun in my hand . . ."

Mrs. Holm's sister, Mrs. Vivian Mohr, said Holm and his wife had been arguing about a vacation.

Mrs. Holm was booked on a suspicion of murder.

DETECTIVE'S BODY FOUND

Expect 550 At Annual Alumni Banquet In Columbiana

COLUMBIANA — An attendance of about 550 is anticipated at the 75th anniversary banquet of Columbiana High School Alumni association at Dixon School at 6:30 p.m. Saturday. Reservations numbered 530 at the last report.

Among guests of note will be E. O. Trescott of Cleveland, superintendent of Columbiana schools, 1896-1906; Dr. W. H. Hayden of Youngstown, one of the two oldest living graduates, the other being William L. Esterly of Toledo, members of the class of '85.

President G. Charles Fisher will preside for the after-dinner program, which will include short talks by Mr. Trescott and Dr. Hayden; Mrs. Nina Inman McFadden, Carrollton, '06; R. J. Barrow, '16; Fred Detwiler, '31; Dr. Irene Miller Houk, '39; and Randall Bailey, who will respond for the class of '56. Elmer Detwiler, Jr., member of the board of education, will serve as toastmaster.

The after-dinner program will be followed by dancing in the High School gym and sesquicentennial pictures in the High School auditorium.

The dinner will be served by the Parent Teacher Organization, and Mrs. Lucile Mundy will provide dinner music on a Hammond organ.

Officers and committee chairmen in addition to President Fisher are Clyde Douglas, vice president and general chairman; Eugene Crawford, program chairman; Mrs. Henry Todd, secretary; Harold Hart, treasurer; Miss Mae Fry, registrar; John Fitzpatrick, tickets; Mrs. G. A. Zellers, dinner; George Seederly, reception; Mr. and Mrs Willard Hetric, decorations; George Keller and Mrs. Dale Young, dancing; nominations, Miss Estella Esterly; publicity, Leo Holloway.

Decoration Day was observed in Columbiana yesterday forenoon with the largest parade in a number of years, but rain interfered with attendance at the program in the cemetery. Rev. Fr. Edward Dierker of St. George Catholic Church of Lisbon was the speaker.

Music for the observance was provided by the Columbiana High School Band, under the direction of William H. Donegan, instructor of instrumental music, and the Fairfield High School band under the direction of John McCormick, instructor of music. The Fairfield Band of 40 members appeared in new uniforms of black and gold caps and coats and black trousers.

The procession to the cemetery included besides Drexler Post Veterans of Foreign Wars, Firestone American Legion Post and their auxiliaries, four girl scout troops, two brownie troops, two boy scout troops, two cub packs and school children. Members of the Columbiana Saddle Club on horses brought up the rear.

The post's schedule of events issued May 1, erroneously gave the date of the district convention at Dover as June 10 instead of June 16 and 17.

Membership chairman Duffy announced that the membership is now 268, a new all-time high. The post gave a vote of thanks to McLaughlin and Willard Zellers for decorating graves in Columbiana, North Lima and Midway church cemeteries.

The Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars firing squad went to New Waterford yesterday afternoon for the observance there.

Past Commander Paul Flynn is in Northside Hospital, Youngstown, Room 389.

EIGHTY-FIVE were present for the interclub meeting with the Columbiana Kiwanis Club at Heck's restaurant, Monday evening, visitors having been present from the Leetonia - Washingtonville, Lisbon and East Palestine clubs.

Norman Emerick, introduced by President John Backstrom as program chairman, presented E. Gordon Warner as the speaker. Mr. Warner gave a Memorial Day talk and spoke of the importance of keeping alive memories of the past, so that its mistakes may not be repeated.

The program included three patriotic musical numbers by boys and girls of the seventh and eighth grades under the direction of Mrs. Georgette Warner.

Among the visitors were Judge Elmer Phillips of Youngstown, member of the court of appeals, James Cherry of Canton and the three Columbiana County commissioners.

Charles Harper, program chairman for the meeting of the Rotary Club at Valley Golf, Monday evening, presented as the speaker Wolfgang Buchholz, German exchange student who was graduated from Columbiana High School last Wednesday evening. Mr. Buchholz told of his home in Seigen, Westphalia, Germany, a city of 80,000, which was almost totally destroyed during the late war, but which has been almost completely restored, and compared the schools in Germany and the U.S. His father is a judge in Seigen.

The Columbiana club will be represented at the convention of Rotary International in Philadelphia next Sunday through Thursday by by D. W. Bailey, president - elect; George Herrmann, secretary-elect, and Attorney John L. Hutson and Dr. K. P. Murphyn past presidents.

Visiting Rotarians Monday evening were Henry Caldwell, Youngstown and Milton Steiner ad Charles Corbett, Salem. Robert Corey was a guest of his father, P. R. Corey, and Fred Bauman, of North Lima a guest of Ira Dalrymple.

Allan White will be program chairman for the meeting next Monday evening when Dr. J. M. Moorehead and Walter Schuck will give member talks.

Mrs. Robert Cline will present her piano pupils in a recital in the Methodist church at 8 p.m. tomorrow. The public is invited.

Columbiana police visited with search warrants the other night the quarters of the Eagles, Sportsmen's Club, Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion, but found no evidence of law violations.

Local Women Attend B & PW Convention

The 36th annual convention of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs was held at the Commodore Perry Hotel in Toledo the past weekend.

Miss Jeanette Hoch, president of the local B. & PW Club, Miss Martha Park, Mrs. William Park, Mrs. Don Cameron, and Mrs. Robert Entrikin were among the 1,024 delegates in attendance.

Congresswoman Frances P. Bolton of the 22nd district, was guest speaker at the banquet Saturday evening. Ohio's first lady, Mrs. Frank Lausche welcomed the delegates.

Mrs. Dorothy Flechtner of Tiffin was elected state president for the coming year. She is known here through her visits.

The 1957 convention will be held in May in Cleveland.

Picnic Plans Are Made By Eljer Co.

The Eljer Co. Enamelware Division employes picnic will be held Saturday at Idora Park. Bob Whitehill is general chairman; George Popovic, announcer and Glenn Marshall, photographer.

Serving on the contest committee will be Al Catlos, chairman; Joe Lamonica, Dan Cherry, John Dermotta, Richard Johnson, George Grega, Ted Beery, Dave Kachner, Rudy DelFavero, Robert Votaw, and Paul Parrish.

The prize committee is comprised of Donald Goodballet, the chairman; Robert Mayhew, and Elbert Burson. Edgar Bloor heads the refreshment committee comprised of Anthony Viola, Roy Smith and Alvin Piper.

Contests will include a tug-of-war between departmental teams, from 10 a.m. until noon, when the basket dinner will be served. At 1 p.m., there will be a softball games between the Eljer Co. Industrial League team and the Kenmar Furniture Softball team.

Dancing has been arranged for the hours from 2 to 4 p.m., when the prizes will be awarded.

Free rides will be available to picnickers from 1 to 5 p.m.

MAY SEEK RECOUNT

CLEVELAND (AP)— Harry T. Marshall says he may still seek a recount of the vote by which he lost the Republican state attorney general nomination by 4,000 votes to William Saxbe.

Marshall said it depends on whether his friends can raise $5,000 for a recount in 500 precincts in Butler, Montgomery, Clark and Summit counties.

Joint Steel Talks Begin

USW, Three Firms Meet Simultaneously

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Representatives of the nation's three largest basic steel producers came here today to open unprecedented joint contract negotiations with the United Steel workers.

For the first time, the three companies — U.S. Steel Corp., Bethlehem Steel Co. and Republic Steel Co. — joined at the bargaining table. But they emphasized they were acting separately.

After David J. McDonald, president of the USW, had announced the new procedure in negotiations earlier this week, Vice President John A. Stephens of U. S. Steel told the same news conference the move is not to be construed as industrywide bargaining.

"It is a joint effort to reach an early settlement," he said.

The three companies employ about 350,000 of the 650,000 USW members in the basic steel industry whose contracts expire at midnight June 30.

Representatives of the "Big Three" and the USW will meet here again Friday. The sessions then are expected to recess until June 6 when they resume at New York.

Although McDonald has made no secret of his ambitions to get the steel industry to bargain on an industrywide basis, he said each of the three major steel companies "will be bargaining only for itself."

Meanwhile, negotiations with other companies are expected to be on a standby basis — to see what happens between the USW and the Big Three.

Included in 22 union proposals are requests for a "substantial" wage increase, a 52-week program of layoff benefits, premium pay for weekend work, and an insurance program paid for entirely by the companies. The steelworkers average hourly pay now is $2.46.

Red Premier Says Ike Is A 'Force For Peace'

BOSTON (AP) — Red China Premier Chou En-lai has been quoted as expressing "high regard" for President Eisenhower as a "force for peace."

Miss Edith Wall, traveling companion of Indian Health Minister (Princess) Amrit Kaur, said Chou made the comment to the princess in the form of a "factual statement" in October 1955 while President Eisenhower was recovering from a heart attack.

Miss Wall said the princess repeated the statement to the President Tuesday.

FLOOD STRANDS GIRL PUPILS — Rescue workers lead 35 girl passengers through deep water after bus nosed into a deep ditch along Indiana Rt. 421, north of Shelbyville, Ind. The girls, pupils of Our Lady of Lourdes school from Indianapolis, were on chartered bus enroute Oldenburg, Ind., when they were stranded.

Traffic Deaths Continue At Record Pace

CHICAGO (AP) — The National Safety Council declared today "there is still time" to halt the trend toward a new record high number of highway traffic deaths.

Ned H. Dearborn, Council president, made the statement on the basis of a recently completed tabulation showing the April death toll of 2,960 was the highest for the month's history.

The previous high of 2,851 was set in 1953.

In addition, Dearborn said, traffic fatalities for the first four months of this year claimed, 11,550 lives, an all-time high. The old mark of 11,281 was set in a comparative period in 1937.

He called for "resolute and prompt action" by public officials local organizations and individuals to curb the increasing death rate. At the current pace, he said, the 1956 traffic death toll could reach 42,000, eclipsing the previous high of 39,969, set in 1941.

April was the 14th consecutive month in which traffic deaths were higher than for a corresponding month in 1955, Dearborn said.

Cadillac

Expected Much...and Got More!

He had heard it time and again from his friends who drive Cadillacs.

He had heard, for instance, of Cadillac's marvelous performance . . . and of Cadillac's great comfort and handling ease . . . and of the satisfaction that comes to the man at the wheel.

And so, when he took the keys to his first Cadillac just a short while ago, he thought he knew what to expect from the "car of cars".

Well, here he is—a few miles out on his maiden journey—and he's learning a great truth about Cadillac: that nothing can adequately prepare a man for Cadillac ownership, save the experience itself.

How, for instance, could anyone fully foresee the joys of owning a new Cadillac car? It gives a man a sense of pride and a feeling of achievement and fulfillment that literally defy description.

Or how could anyone anticipate the thrill of driving a new Cadillac? Smooth and quiet . . . eager and responsive . . . restful and relaxing—it simply has no counterpart on the world's highways.

And how could anyone foreknow the many other pleasures that await him at the wheel . . . . . . the joy of finding that his Cadillac, with all its quality and character, is among the most practical of motor cars to own and operate . . . . . and the satisfaction we believe he will find in his relationship with us as his Cadillac dealer—and in our honest concern with his motoring well-being.

Why not stop in soon for a personal preview of this wonderful experience?

We think you will be delighted to learn how quickly you can get delivery and to find how much your current car is worth to us in trade.

SUB Payments Ruled Income; To Be Taxed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government held Tuesday that idle auto workers who receive new supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) must report them as income annually and pay taxes on them.

However, they may receive the payments in full, without their being reduced by withholding taxes.

Russell C. Harrington, Internal Revenue commissioner, ruled that the new SUB payments—due to go into effect Friday for General Motors, Ford and Chrysler workers—are not to be treated as wages but as nonwage income.

A number of states still are considering whether SUB benefits are "wages" that would prevent workers receiving them at the same time they draw regular state unemployment compensation (UC) benefits.

There had been fears a federal ruling that SUB payments were "wages" might cause these states to turn thumbs down on simultaneous UC and SUB payments and that some states having already okayed the dual system might change their positions.

A total of 18 states and the District of Columbia already have approved, but three states—Ohio, Indiana and Virginia—have prohibited dual payments.

Under the auto industry plan employers contribute toward trust funds to finance supplementary jobless aid. The worker is entitled to combined UC-SUB payments of up to 65 per cent of normal take-home pay for his first four weeks of unemployment, 60 per cent for the next 22 weeks.

Under Harrington's ruling the unemployed auto worker must report and pay federal income taxes in his annual return on the SUB payments he received. But he will be exempt on his state UC benefits. This is under a 1938 Internal Revenue ruling still in effect that UC benefits are tax exempt.

Stevenson Buoyed By Narrow Primary Victory

Kefauver Campaigns Strong In California In Attempt To Regain Ground He Lost In Florida

By The Associated Press

Sen. Estes Kefauver, fighting to regain ground lost in his Florida primary defeat, campaigned at full throttle today in an effort to whip Adlai Stevenson in California's climactic Democratic presidential primary.

Stevenson obviously was buoyed by his Florida victory over Kefauver—narrow as it was—as he too pushed a drive for votes in the California primary next Tuesday.

The rival candidates quickly resumed their in-fighting. Kefauver blamed his Florida defeat on support given to Stevenson by what he called "Talmadge-type" politicians. Stevenson retorted that Kefauver was a "sore loser" and accused his opponent of "mud slinging."

The California primary is a winner-take-all proposition, with 68 convention votes the jackpot prize. It also is the last direct Kefauver-Stevenson test before the Democratic nominating convention in August.

While Stevenson and Kefauver continued to knock heads in California, President Eisenhower arranged to give a pep talk to the national Citizens for Eisenhower Committee. This group, meeting in Washington, also was expected to hear from Vice President Nixon — the other half of the all-but-certain Republican ticket this year.

Kefauver, ranging the San Diego area Wednesday, flung at Stevenson the old age pension and "bossism" issues he used in Florida, where Stevenson won a slim popular vote majority, but pocketed 22 of the state's 28 national convention votes.

With only 23 of Florida's 1,778 precincts unreported, Stevenson had 221,718 votes to 209,447 for Kefauver — an edge of slightly more than 12,000.

Kefauver said his record reflected unflagging solicitude for the elderly. And he repeated his Florida accusation that Stevenson, while governor of Illinois, vetoed a bill that would have raised old age pensions. Stevenson has called that charge unfair, saying he vetoed the bill because the State Legislature failed to appropriate money to implement it. California, like Florida, has a substantial number of retired citizens.

On the "bossism" issue, Kefauver said, "One of the great dangers of the present campaign in California is that the Old Guard politicians are using the campaign of Mr. Stevenson to climb back into power."

He said the "main reason I lost in Florida" was that "Talmadge-type politicians" were for Stevenson and "against me on the civil rights issue." The term "Talmadge-type politicians," Kefauver said, referred to former Gov. Herman Talmadge of Georgia, a strongly prosegregation leader who Kefauver said carries considerable influence in north Florida.

Although Stevenson never once mentioned Kefauver by name during Wednesday's swing through California's northern coastal Valleys, he opened up on the senator when he got to Los Angeles.

Stung by Kefauver's charges, Stevnson issud a statmnt to- THT Stevenson issued a statement today, saying:

"Sen. Kefauver is engaged in mud slinging that will hurt the Democratic party. I shall not stoop to those tactics. I am sorry that he has resorted to personal abuse and deceit in these last days of the primary campaign."

Like Kefauver, Stevenson passed up a Memorial Day break Wednesday to seek out as many potential voters as possible in advance of the primary.

Leading a motorcade into several smaller communities, he reiterated criticisms of Eisenhower administration policies, particularly in the foreign field. He said the United States "is neither as strong as it was three years ago nor does it command the respect it did" then. He depicted Eisenhower and his aides as using "boasts, threats, slogans and nonsense" in dealings with other nations.

In Atlanta, Democratic Gov. Marvin Griffin hinted Wednesday that Georgia's 32 convention votes may go to Stevenson on the first ballot. Griffin said he was pleased by Stevenson's Florida victory, but he declined to say flatly what the state's delegation would do in Chicago. He did say he is "satisfied" it will not vote for Kefauver or Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, regarded as a potential candidate for the party's presidential nomination. The Georgia delegation will vote as a unit.

In South Carolina, Strom Thurmond, 1948 States Rights presidential candidate, said that if a "suitable candidate" is not nominated at the Democratic convention "it may become necessary to nominate a third candidate, or to set up a third set of electors."

BEATEN BABY — Nine-month-old Rhonda O'Rourke gets kissed by her mother in the City Hospital in Boston, Mass. The tiny tot suffered two broken legs and other injuries in a beating allegedly administered by her father, Robert O'Rourke, 24, who is being held in $5,000 bail. Police say the baby was beaten because she wouldn't stop crying.

Government Reports Strike Idleness Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today that strike idleness was higher during the first four months of this year than for any comparable period since 1952.

About 7,700,000 man days of working time were lost from January through April, the Labor Department said. The comparable figure for last year was 5,410,000 man days, that for 1954 was 4,610,000 and that for 1953 was 6,400,000. In January-April 1952, strike idleness amounted to 9,680,000 man days—the time of one man for one day.

The department said last month saw 450 strikes in effect, idling 210,000 workers for an aggregate of 1½ million man days. This compared with 350 stoppages involving 175,000 workers for two million lost man days in March.

3,500 Gallons Of Milk Is Spilled On Turnpike

DANVERS, Mass. (AP) — There was plenty of spilled milk to cry over on the Newburyport turnpike —3,500 gallons to be exact.

Truck driver Jesse Bolles, 48, verd his tank truck to avoid a car and the truck, Boston-bound with 3,500 gallons of Maine milk, jackknifed and overturned.

Bolles and his son, Paul, 12, escaped with bruises but holiday traffic on the busy turnpike was held up nearly four hours while firefighters washed the milk from the highway.

Minerva Boy Picked Ohio's Star Farmer

COLUMBUS, Ohio —Elson J. Cassidy, 17, of Rt. 3, Minerva, will be honored tonight as Ohio's "star state farmer" of 1956.

He will receive the award at the annual banquet of the Ohio chapter of the Future Farmers of America (FFA), a highlight of the two-day convention which ends Friday.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche, an honorary FFA member, will address the gathering.

Agricultural judging contests and election of officers are on Friday's agenda, with more than 2,000 delegates expected.

Cassidy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cassidy of near Louisville. The youth handles his father's 93-acre farm and 140 rented acres.

He has farming investments of about $8,000, including 14 registered Holstein cows.

GIRL FALLS 100 FEET

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 17 - year-old girl fell 100 feet into a ravine in suburban Parma last night, but suffered only minor injuries.

Eilen McGloin, who was helping her family move into a new house, had walked to the brink of the ravine to look at the scenery. A tree branch she was holding broke and she fell, landing on soft grass. Firemen resuced her with ropes and ladders.

NAMED CITY MANAGER

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — City Public Works Director Robert Mackley has been named acting Delaware city manager to replace former City Manager Robert F. Mott. Mott resigned, effective today, to accept an appointment as executive director of the Development Committee for Greater Columbus.

Pope Pius In Good Condition, Overtired

VATICAN CITY (AP) —Pope Pius XII, described in good condition although a little overtired after a physical examination Wednesday night, came to the window of his study today to bless pilgrims in St. Peter's Square.

The blessing was given with a firm delivery, indicating quick recovery from the slight weakening of his voice reported Wednesday.

The Pope Wednesday night underwent a general medical and cardiograph examination. Doctors said he showed no sign of throat infection or other physical disturbance.

Airman

Threats to that control, Burke contends, may exist in various forms, like submarines, planes or missiles.

And he holds that the best way to take care of such a threat "is to destroy the weapons at their bases before they are launched." Therefore, Burke says, the Navy has developed and will continue to develop "the capability of striking the source of our threats."

President Eisenhower has added his views, with some praise for the Navy. At a news conference, the commander in chief declared the U.S. Navy is the world's most powerful and "it features one thing, air power."

Then he added that no matter how efficient in range, the farther forward an aircraft is carried before taking off, the less time it needs to spend in the air and "the more efficient it operates in war."

200 At Memorial Day Service In Winona

A highlight of the Memorial Day parade at Winona Wednesday morning was the formation of a band comprised of area school children.

Participants were Ruth and Donald Conser, Loren Weingart, Fred Vogelhuber, Allen Knizat, Bill Skeeles, Wendle Satterthwaite, Paula Waithman, June Geary, Mary Lou Alexander and Norma Hartsough.

The parade was led by cub scouts of the village, and Rev. Earl Brooks of the Winona Methodist Church was the speaker at the services held at the Glenn Bennett Memorial playground.

Two hundred persons attended to honor the memory of Glenn Bennett, William Andre, Zeno Duda, Charles Wolford, Gerald Wheaten, Donald Dennis.

Blair, Baillie, Hone Win Golf Club Tourneys

Ray Blair, shooting a 66 with handicap, won the A flight of the annual Memorial Day Flag Tournament at the Salem Golf Club. George Baillie won the B section with a 63.

Ed Pukalski with a 69 was the runner-up in the A flight, Dick Green was third with a 69 and Jim Wingard and Bill Hannay with 70 each finished fourth and fifth.

Although Pukalski and Green had the same score, Pukalski ended up 24 feet from the 19th hole and Green was 29 off. Wingard came in 45 feet from the 19th and Hannay was 48. The winner Blair was 31 feet from the 20th.

George Baillie, coming in 8½ feet off the 20th pin with a 63, captured the B flight of the tourney. Ray Stiver with a 61 rolled in 14 off the 20th for a second place. Leeds Frye was third, Jack Rance was fourth and Ed Thomas came in fifth.

Bud Hone won the Pro's Blind Bogey tourney, which was run at the same time as the Flag Tournament. Bill Hannay and Jim Wingard deadlocked for second and George Walker, Fred Cope, Doc Sandrock, Earl Ware and Walt Hiltbrand tied for third place in Vince Leskosky's Blind Bogey tourney.

Pukaslki had the low gross for the day with a 73, Green with a 74 was a close second and Rudy Schuster and Jim Wingard with a 76 and 78 finished third and fourth respectively.

Ray Stiver had the high net score for the day with a 61, George Baillie was second with a 63 and Leeds Frye and Ray Blair had 66 each as they tied for third in that category.

Tribe Trails Yanks By Six

Houtteman, Garcia Are Handed Losses

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians, dropped to third place by a double loss to the Chicago White Sox Wednesday, leave tonight on an eastern tour.

They open in Washington Friday night and are scheduled to play 16 games in 14 days before they return home.

Now trailing the New York Yankees by six games, and percentage points behind the White Sox, the Indians need a lot of victories on this trip.

They lost two loosely played games Wednesday by scores of 6-3 and 9-8. The Indians came up with a six run rally, featuring three home runs, in the ninth inning of the nightcap.

Cleveland came out of a hitting slump, getting 10 hits in the first game and 11 in the second. But Chicago batters rapped five Cleveland pitchers for seven hits in the first game, and got 13 hits off four Indian pitchers in the nightcap.

Five Chicago players were hit by pitched balls in the opener, one short of a record.

In the nightcap, Cleveland right fielder Stu Locklin lost Larry Doby's easy fly in the sun and it dropped for a double, scoring two runs. The White Sox got another run in a wild pitch by Bud Daley.

Art Houtteman lost his first start ofthe season in the opener leaving in the sixth after Sherm Lollar hit a two-run homer. Billy Pierce got the victory, his third of the season over the Indians, although he needed help from Dixie Howell and Jim Wilson. Cleveland's Vic Wertz hit two homers and a double in the opener.

The second game victory went to Gerry Staley, former National Leaguer acquired by the White Sox from the New York Yankees last Monday. He left in the eighth, leading 9-2.

Most of the 26,788 Memorial Day fans had left the park before Cleveland came to life in the final inning. Homers by Al Smith, Chico Carrasquel and Rocky Colavito drove in six runs. Bob Avila singled to become the tying run,but Sandy Consuegra, Chicago's third pitcher in the inning, got Jim Hegan to hit into a forceout ending the game.

The loss went to starter Mike Garcia, his fifth in eight decisions.

Bob Lemon, still on a six game winning streak although he was knocked out of the box by Chicago last Sunday, is scheduled to pitch against Washington Friday night.

After five games in Washington, three in Baltimore, three in New York and five in Boston, the Indians return home to face the Yankees on June 15.

5 Home Run Records Broken Wednesday

By The Associated Press

In the greatest outburst of home run hitting in the history of major league baseball, five records were broken and one tied in the eight doubleheaders on Memorial Day.

A total of 50 homers were hit in both leagues, surpassing the old mark of 40 established May 30, 1950 when the National League sluggers connected with 24 and the American League batters with 16.

National League batters sent 26 soaring out of the park Wednsday to surpass their own and the major league one-day mark of 25 established July 16, 1950. And the 24 hit by the American League topped the circuit's previous best of 19 on July 25, 1937.

The Milwaukee Braves and the Chicago Cubs produced the other record in leading the slugfest. They hit a total of 15 in the two games at Wrigley Field—nine in the first game and six in the second. The old mark of 14 was hung up by the Yankees and Philadelphia Athletics May 22, 1930.

Successive home runs by the Braves' Ed Mathews, Hank Aaron and Bobby Thomson in the first inning of the first game equalled another major league record.

New Orleans—Willie Pastrano, 182¼, New Orleans, outpointed Chuck Spieser, 172, Detroit, 10.

Mantle Just Misses Hitting Ball Out Of Yankee Stadium

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Eighteen inches—a mere foot and a half—was all that stood in the way of Mickey Mantle becoming the first baseball player to hit a fair ball out of massive Yanke Stadium.

Nobody—not even Babe Ruth or Lou Gehrig—ever hit a ball farther in the Yankees' 33-year-old ball park. Only one Stadium drive even approached Mantle's titanic wallop. That was a home run hit by Jimmy Foxx of the Philadelphia Athletics off Lefty Gomez in 1932.

That ball went to the opposite field where Mantle hit his—into the upper left field stands, several feet within clearing distance of the park. Mantle's wallop hit the facade of the roof above the third tier in right field. The switch hitting sensation stroked his home run, No. 19 of the season, batting lefthanded against righthander Pedro Ramos of the Washington Senators.

It came in the fifth inning, with two out and two on, on a 2-2 count, and led to the Yankees' first game 4-3 triumph. Mickey hit another home run in the second game, also won by the Yankes, 12-5. This one traveled a mere 400 fet and landed in right-center field bleachers.

Yankee coaches Bill Dickey and Frank Crosetti, who were teammates of Ruth and Gehrig, agreed they had never seen a ball travel farther than Mantle's first game clout.

Mantle himself said it was the hardest ball he has hit lefthanded.

He did not think it was longer than the gigantic 563-foot homer he hit out of Griffith Stadium in Washington in 1953.

"It was a fast ball and I timed it perfectly," said the Commerce, Okla., strongboy, modestly.

"I saw Foxx hit his tremendous homer off Gomez," Crosetti said. "It was the longest I had ever seen—until this one."

The most striking feature of Mantle's blow, according to Manager Casey Stengel, was not so much the distance but the fact that Mickey did not swing too hard.

"He took a swing of about two feet," said Stengel. "In other words, he did not swing from his heels. That boy has power he hasn't used yet."

How far was the drive? That's difficult to establish. Some guessed it would have traveled about 550 feet had nothing impeded its progress.

The distance from the ground to the roof in right field is 118 feet. The facade is set back 25 feet from the base of the stands at the ground. The ball traveled 370 feet and was 117 feet high when it hit the facade.

Mickey's 20 homers in the Yankees' 41 games put him 11 games ahead of Ruth's record pace when he slammed 60 in 1927. The Babe did not get his 20th until his 52nd game.

Biggest Crowds Of Year Turn Out For Games

By The Associated Press

Major league baseball, enjoying its biggest day of the season, played to 240,354 fans Wednesday for an increase of nearly 50,000 over Memorial Day a year ago.

The attendance for the eight double-headers on May 30, 1955 was 194,448. Wednesday a total of 122,025 saw the four American League doubleheaders and 118,329 were on hand for the four National League twinbills.

Philadelphia drew the biggest crowd—a standing room only turnout of 35,492—for its doubleheader with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Lightning Class Craft Win Yacht Club Race

The lightning class division were winners of the afternoon boat race Wednesday at the Berlin Yacht Club.

Individual winners were Earl Zuber, first place; R. N. Zuber, second; and Bob Mathews, third.

A storm came up during the afternoon race and several boats in the development class were upset. The evening race was cancelled because of rain and squalls.

All divisions will sail in the race scheduled for Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Pat Flaherty Roars To His First Victory At Indianapolis Speedway

By DALE BURGESS

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—If any race driver still thought green was a bad luck color (an ancient superstition in the trade), they could get a sound argument today from George Francis Patrick (Pat) Flaherty, who won the 40th 500-milt race at Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Flaherty, a red-haired, 29-year-old racing veteran, roared unscathed Wednesday around a track littered with oil and debris from seven bad wrecks and innumerable spins and skids.

Two drivers, two pit crew members and two spectators were hurt as cars splattered against the concrete retaining walls and banged into one another.

Tony Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Ill., suffered a fractured collar bone and Jimmy Daywalt of Indianapolis suffered a burned arm when their cars crashed into the walls in separate accidents. They were reported in good condition at a hospital.

Flaherty, who runs a bar when he isn't racing, didn't put a scratch on the big green shamrock painted on the front of his helmet.

He started on the pole as the fasest qualifier in Speedway history and he beat veteran Sam Hanks of Burbank, Calif., to the finish line in the closest windup sinre Wilbur Shaw nipped Ralph Hepburn by 2.15 selonds in 1937.

Flaherty took the 41 - year - old Hanks by 20.46 seconds or about a third of the 2½-mile track.

The racing during competition was the fastest ever but due to an hour and 11 minutes of slowdowns for wrecks the final average was 128.49 miles an hohr compared with Bill Vukovich's 1954 record of 130.84.

Flaherty missed Dick Rathmann's spinning car about two feet by splendid driving.

Flaherty, car owner John Zink of Tulsa, Okla., and master mechanic A. J. Watson of Glendale, Calif., won't know how much they won until the annual victory dinner tonight but Pat picked up $19,200 in lap prizes alone — $150 for each lap he led. The Speedway sets the purse according to the gate, which looked like more than 100,000 customers in spite of overnight rain.

The purse, including awards from accessory firms to cars using their products, was $270,000 last year and Sweikert won $76,138.

Don Freeland of Redondo Beach, Calif., finished third unofficially, followed by Johnnie Parsons of Van Nuys, Calif., the 1950 winner; Dick Rathmann of Trenton, N.J., who pulled out of the spin that menaced Flaherty and then crashed on the south straightaway after crossiny the finish line; Sweikert; Rodger Ward, Los Angeles; Bob Veith of Oakland, Calif., highest rookie finisher; Jimmy Reece, Oklahoma City; and Cliff Griffith, Indianapolis.

Willie Pastrano Wins Decision Over Spieser

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Willie Pastrano's finally got Chuck Spieser out of his hair, but the swift New Orleans heavyweight's future plans have little pattern.

Pastrano, borrowing a page from the baseball manual, hit to all fields Wednesday night. He displayed a newly acquired style of infighting in winning a nationally televised 10-round split decision over the former Olympic team member from Detroit.

At 172, Spieser spotted Pastrano 10½ pounds.

The meeting was the third between the two and the record now shows two triumphs for Pastrano and one draw.

Pastrano opened bad cuts under Spieser's eyes and showed a marked superiority in the boxing department. But the officials couldn't agree on the decision.

Referee Frank Kercheval tabbed Spieser the winner 6 rounds to 4 with the crowd of 9,000 howling in disapproval. But Judge Eddie (Kid) Wolfe had Willie winning, 8-1 with 1 even and Judge Pete Giaruso had Pastrano ahead 7-1-2. The AP tally had Pastrano far in front 8-2.

Pastrano said he had a two-week cruise with the Naval Reserve ahead of him and then — well, he just doesn't know.

"I'll take on whoever they want me to fight," he said, "but I don't think there's anything definite."

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By R. L LIDE

By L. L. LIDE

Approximately one half million walleye pike fry were stocked in the headquarters of Little Beaver Creek last week by the Ohio Division of Wildlife.

Plantings were made in the west branch at Summitville and Millport, also in the creek near Guilford on Rt. 172. These were one to three day old fry about ½-inch long. If they live and do well they should reach a normal growth of 10 to 12 inches in one year. They were transported in plastic bags filled with oxygen and released in good shape.

Little Beaver was in fair shape for fishing last Saturday and a few small and large mouth bass were being taken along with the usual creek fish like suckers, rock bass and carp.

Paul McKenzie and sons Dennis and Marvin have caught numerous bass 8 to 16 inches while fishing above Echo Dell, but returned them all to the water as they were heavy with spawn. They used their own design lure, something similar to a CP Swing. That proves it is not how the lure looks to the fisherman that counts but how it looks to the fish.

I spent the entire day on Litle Beaver Saturday making creel census. Fishermen were few and far between. Anyone interested in beautiful scenery should hike a couple of miles downstream from Sprucevale. There you will see the most beautiful stream with numerous white riffles, rock gorges topped with native hemlock and flowering dogwood that is unsurpassed in beauty anywhere in the state of Ohio. Camera fans take note.

Fishermen at Lake Guilford did very well over the weekend since the walleyes are active. Bob Hoffman landed two walleyes, 18-22 inches; W. Brooks of Brudgetown, Pa., one walleye, 19¼ inches, one bass 13 inches and three bullheads; John Moody of Steubenville, 16 inch walleye; Charles Dickey of Wellsville one 21 and one 18-inch bass; Mary Ellen Dickey, one 13-inch bass; Donald Krauss of Ashtabula, 10 crappies up to 16 inches; George Croxall, Robert Helfish and Richard Russell of East Liverpool took home a mixed stringer of perch, gills and crappies.

Earl Freshley of Guilford makes the headlines by landing a fish tag. It seems the walleye he tied on to got off but tag no. 37639W was secured to the hook. Now I can check with the Akron office and find out the length of the big fish that got away.

Howard Adrian of Williamsport comes forth with his annual warning to watch out for copperhead snakes down on the Little Beaver Creek area. He killed his first of the season and said the snakes can be found out in the open spots as we have not had the warm sunshine to drive them into the shade.

I have often heard that copperheads give off an odor that smells like a cucumber. Several people whiffed this snake within two inches of their nose and said they could detect no odor whatsoever. I am wondering if they actually smell like cucumbers?

I have a late report that Carl Weaver of Canton landed a 17½ inch walleye. Also Fred Scharver and Carl Weaver of Canton netted 14½, 17½, and 18½ inch walleyes along with a mixed stringer of crappies and bluegills at Guilford. The best luck was had by most fishermen using night crawlers.

Another fisherman, I did not get his name, battled a tremendous large fish for an hour and 15 minutes until both hands were weary. John Belot of Guilford towed his boat out into the deep water where the fisherman could play the fish to better advantage on his spinning oufit and finally when he saw he was tied on to a tremendous big carp he jerked the hook out in disgust. He hooked the fish in the tail which made it so hard to handle.

Fishing should be good any time the rains let up.

Braves Split With Chicago

Yankees Sweep Pair From Washington

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

It'h bten a long time coming, but Bobby Thomson finally looks ready to deliver the payoff for the Milwaukee Braves in that ill-fated deal they arranged to get him from the New York Giants in 1954.

The Swattin' Scot was the man the Braves figured they needed for the pennant, and so they packaged pitchers Johnny Antonelli and Don Liddle, catcher Ebba St.Cair, infielder Billy Klaus and about $50,000 and sent them to the Polo Grounds for Bobby and catcher Sam Calderone.

You know what happened. Thomson broke an ankle in spring training, hit only two home runs and the Braves finished third. The Giants won the flag — with Antonelli winning 21 games.

Last season, Thomson hit 12 homers while playing on a part-time basis and the Braves finished second to Brooklyn.

Now Thomson has eight home runs so far this season and the Milwaukees lead the National League by a game. Bobby slammed four homers, had six hits in nine trips and drove in seven runs as the Braves split a double-header with the Chicago Cubs Wednesday.

All told, the two clubs combined for 15 home runs among the record 50 which were blasted in the 16-game Memorial Day card.

For all the records and Thomson's great day, however, most of the excitement was set off by Mickey Mantle's 'nearmiss." The Oklahoma strong boy, jolting his 19th and 20th homer of the season as the New York Yankees swept Washington, smacked one against the facade on the third tier in right field that missed by 18 inches of being the first fair ball ever hit out of mammoth Yankee Stadium.

Thomson hit two homers in each game — his first "double" since Aug. 22, 1953. A pair of two-run homers by Hobie Landrith and Dee Fondy in the sixth got the job done in the opener for the Cubs, however, 10-9. Thomson's three-run blast triggered a four-run sixth that helped Milwaukee to an 11-9 edge in the nightcap.

Cub pitcher Russ Meyer and Billy Bruton were banished from the opener after exchanging blows when Meyer conked Bruton on his protective helmet with a pitch.

The flareup followed consecutive first-inning homers by Ed Mathews, Hank Aaron and Thomson—tying a major league mark.

Cincinnati replaced St. Louis as the NL runner-up, sweeping the Cardinals 6-3 and 6-5. Ray Jablonski's three-run homer in the eighth won the opener. Doubles by Frank Robinson and Ted Kluszewski fired a six-run third that won the nightcap.

Pittsburgh held fourth place, 1½ games back in a split with the New York Giants. Dale Long's triple won the opener in 10 innings 5-4 for the Pirates. A two-run double by Al Dark broke up the nightcap for the Giants in 15 innings, 5-3.

Brooklyn and Philadelphia also split, the Dodgers scoring six in the sixth off Robin Roberts to win 6-5 in the opener. Then the Phils, with seven unearned runs, ran off with a 12-3 decision.

The Yankees beat the Senators 4-3 and 12-5. Mantle's big belt with two on gave them the lead in the opener. Mantle's 20th homer cracked a 3-all tie in the nightcap and a five-run sixth iced it.

Billy Pierce needed help, but won No. 100 in the majors and third straight over Cleveland as Chicago clipped the Indians twice 6-3 and 9-8.

Baltimore twice edged Boston in the ninth, 2-1 and 5-4. Bob Hale's single broke up the second game. Bob Nieman's single ended the opener.

Virgil Trucks, despite a swollen ankle that benched him for 10 days, three-hit Kansas City as Detroit beat the A's 5-1 in the second half of a morning-afternoon pair on a two-run homer by Al Kaline and a three-run shot by Frank House. The Tigers took the opener 11-3.

Madrid—Young Martin, Spain, outpointed Guy Schatt, France, 15. (Martin retained European flyweight title).

Happy Days, Demings, Marks, Bloombergs Win Softball Games

Happy Days topped Marshalls 9-6, Bloombergs edged Wilks Inn 10-8, Marks Landing stomped Hecks 11-0, and Demings downed Stepanics Tavern 7-2 in softball action at Kelley Park Tuesday evening.

Happy Days, trailing 5-3 at the end of two innings, caught fire in the next three frames to score two runs in each, which was good enough to give them the win over Marshalls 9-6. Pete Scapp led the attack with three singles and a home run.

Bloombergs outscored Wilks Inn in innings two and four in their game which gave them the slight margin they needed to win the closely contested fray. In a battle of extra base hits Bloombergs smashed out four home runs to give Bill Panzott his first win of the year.

Marks Landing jumped off to a 7-0 lead at the end of three innings in their game with Hecks Restaurant. They played a tight defensive game, allowing their foe no runs, and scored four runs in the final frame to cinch the win 11-0. Glenn Mercer garnered the win and Satch Altomare suffered the loss.

After a scoreless first inning Demings moved into the lead 1-0 over Stepanics Tavern and boosted their lead to 7-0 at the end of four as they coasted into victory 7-2. Jim Barn's three-run homer in the third iced the game for the winners. Ehrhart picked up his third win of the year. Speakman took the loss.

Nashua Fourth In Metropolitan

Midafternoon Scores Upset At Belmont

By ORLO ROBERTSON
The Associated Press

Nashua, the world's richest horse, posed a question of his right to rank with the turf's great after finishing out of the money for the second time in his brilliant racing carer.

Can the son of Nasrullah, who sold for $1,251,200 last winter and has won more money than any other horse in history, carry as much as 130 pounds and still win?

To achieve greatness, many horsemen say a horse must be able to win with even more than 130 in the saddle. On that basis Nashua still has to prove himself.

The strapping 4-year-old picked up 130 (the most he has ever carried) in the Metropolitan Mile at Belmont Park Wednesday and wound up fourth as Midafternoon, who never had won a stakes race, ripped off the distance in 1:35 under 111 pounds, and paid $20.60. The time equalled the stake record established in 1930 by Jack High.

True, Nashua was beaten only less than a length for the $37,700 first money as Midafternoon finished a head in front of Switch On with Find a half-length back and a neck in front of the "big" horse.

The fourth place money of $2,500 boosted Nashua's earnings to $1,102,865.

The defeat of Nashua was the highspot of the holiday at 11 thoroughbred tracks, where a total of 342,951 fans wagered $20,049,774.

The running of the historic $25,000 added Dixie Handicap at Pimlico saw Chevation from Willie DuPont's Foxcatcher Farm score a nose over Cockfield Stable's Akbar Khan.

Rex Ellsworth's Terrang, stablemate of Swaps, captured the $29,700 Will Rogers stake over a field of so-so 3-year-olds at Hollywood Park where 67,648 formed the largest crowd of the day.

Skipper Bill carried John W. Galbreath's Darby Dan Farm silks to a neck victory in the $25,500 Brandywine Handicap at Delaware Park.

Paxton Hickan's Lycka won her sixth successive race in accounting for the $30,950 Betsy Ross stakes at Garden State.

Sea O Erin, veteran campaigner from Allie Reuben's Hasty House Farm, won his second straight Balmoral Citation Handicap at Washington Park. He paid $5.60 to win and won $25,600 of the $44,100 purse.

Mrs. Rose Robidoue's Deep Thought upset favored Wise Margin by three quarters of a length in the $10,000 Tomasello Handicap at Suffolk Downs.

sit up by the armistice which ender the Korean fighting in 1953. There are four members of the commission—Sweden and Switzerland and the Soviet bloc nations Poland and Czechoslovakia.

The United States early this month told its Korean war allies steps should be taken soon to abolish the commission. Both the United States and South Korea have long charged that the Communist North Koreans have prevented the truce team from working effectively to check armistice violations.

Gard said the suspension of commission operations in South Korea would remain in effect until the Reds stopped illegal introduction of war material and "corrected" reports purporting to show there had been no armistice violations. He added that the U.N. Command would continue to "adhere scrupulously" to all other provisions of the armistice agreement.

City Will Receive Flag That Flew Over Capitol

The United States flag which will fly over City Hall during the sesquicentennial celebration formerly flew over the capitol building in Washington, D. C.

The city received the flag Tuesday from Congressman Wayne L. Hays. During the sesqui celebration, the Salem boy scouts will be in charge of the raising and lowering of the flag. It will remain in the city following the sesquicentennial.

A new flag also was donated to the city by the R. S. McCulloch store.

The city garage also has a new flag; service department personnel recently donated money for its purchase. The old banner, yhich had been donated by the United Council of Veterans, was stolen from the flag pole at the garage a few months ago.

Nab Two Area Youths On Charge Of Burglary

LISBON—A 13-year-old East Liverpool youth was sent to the state diagnostic clinic in Columbus for an examination and a 12-year-old boy from the same city was released in custody of his parents after hearings today before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin.

The two youths were taken into custody wednesday at Guilford Lake by Deputy Sheriff James Milfor breaking and entering Ruby's Trading Post near Mark's Landing at the lake.

The sheriff's office said the boys entered the store through the back door before 6 a. m. Wednesday and stole two reels valued at $47, a rod and reel costing $6.95, 12 boxes of .22 caliber shells, a carbide light, a can of carbide and $18 in cash. The loot totaled about $75.

Jury Convicts Thomas Daniel

Faces 20-Year Term For Abortion Death

NEW YORK (AP) — Thomas G. Daniel, convicted of manslaughter in the abortion death of his girl friend, Jacqueline Smith, remains in city prison today pending his sentencing set for June 22.

A General Sessions Court jury found Daniel, 25, guilty Tuesday after a three-week trial. Daniel, who came here three years ago from Warren, Ohio, faces a possible maximum penalty of 20 years in prison.

The jury had heard testimony that the body of Miss Smith, 20, from Lebanon, Pa., who came here to be a fashion designer, was dismembered after a fatal abortion last Christmas Eve in Daniel's apartment. The parts of her body, wrapped in Christmas paper, were thrown into street trash baskets. No trace of her body has been found.

Leo Pijuan, 46, pleaded guilty during the trial to manslaughter in the abortion. Pijuan said he dismembered the body. He will be sentenced June 25.

The victim's father, Chester Smith, 41, steel company supervisor of Lebanon, was on hand for the jury verdict. He slipped quietly from a side entrance of the courtroom.

In the district attorney's office, Smith declined to comment on Daniel but said:

"I think the New York police and New York law-enforcement officials are the best in the world."

Smith also praised police for the way "they have treated me all during their investigation of the case."

Daniel's widowed mother, Katherine, 54, was told of the verdict as she sat outside the courtroom in a corridor.

"God help me," she cried. "They have taken my life, my savings, my son. I don't want to live any more. I want to die myself."

Mrs. Daniel pleaded with her attorneys to see her son, but he already had been taken back to city prison.

The news was broken to Mrs. Daniel by John W. Ticoras, co-defense counsel, and his associate, Francis X. Diana, both of Warren.

David Seigal, also of Daniel's counsel, told newsmen outside of the courtroom that an appeal would be made.

The case was heard before Judge Mitchell Schweitzer.

Participants Needed For 2nd Cavalcade

Brothers of the Brush, Sisters of the Swish and queen candidates are needed for Saturday's Sesquicentennial Itinerant Cavalcade which will tour 18 cities and towns north of Salem.

Those wishing to make the trip are requested to register at Sesqui Headquarters on E. State St.

Drivers are also needed for the cars which local auto dealers will provide.

Accompanying the cavalcade, which will be the second publicizing Salem's Sesquicentennial celebration, will be an American Legion band. The State Highway Patrol will lead the caravan on its 98-mile trip.

Those joining the cavalcade should be at Centennial Park entrance at 9 a. m. Saturday. Last week's tour, which covered 18 southern towns and cities, was well-received.

Large Crowd Views Memorial Day Services

A large crowd witnessed the Memorial Day parade which moved promptly at 10 a.m. as scheduled in spite of the rain. The drizzle stopped before the two parade sections reached their destinations at Hope and Grandview Cemeteries.

Patriotic organizations, hundreds of boy and girl scouts and a large number of school children led by the American Legion and Salem High School Bands, participated. Rev. Fr. John Duffy of New London spoke at the service at Hope Cemetery, and Captain John Hanson of Elyria Salvation Army Corps, formerly stationed in Salem, was speaker at Grandview Cemetery. Police and auxiliary police handled the traffic.

Police Trial

the statement he had written in March and his change of testimony on the stand.

Judge Sharp, at the request of Springer, asked reporters not to use details of the questioning of Bishop while the jury was absent.

Springer said the panel of nine women and three men might be prejudiced at reading the testimony in the papers.

When the jury returned, Brokaw asked Bishop, "Did the reading of the statement refresh your memory about the burglary?"

The witness answered, "No, I can't remember."

Q — You can't remember ever being in Berman's.

A — No.

Q—Are you afraid?

A — No. I'm not afraid.

Q—Did you receive a threatening telephone call in the last two weeks?

A — I did.

Q—What was the nature of it?

A—On a Wednesday night —

Attorney Springer objected here, stating that the testimony caused a reflection on the defendant. Judge Sharp sustained the objection.

After a few more rounds of questioning by Brokaw, Springer turned down an offer to question Bishop.

Atty. Springer objected to some of Feckett's questions and the objections were sustained.

Bishop, wearing a blue suit, took the stand about 9:50 a.m., just after court convened, with about 35 onlookers in the courtroom.

First indication that he would not testify as scheduled came when Brokaw asked him if he had not pleaded guilty to the breaking and entering of Berman's along with Robert McBane, former policeman. They were indicted jointly, with Cunningham and Raimond.

Brokaw then asked, "Are you guilty?"

He answered he was not.

Later Brokaw asked him if he had conversations with Cunningham recently. Bishop said Cunningham had come to his house and they had talked about how he was feeling. Bishop said he had told him he was nervous and couldn't eat or sleep, and said he was "about ready for the insane asylum."

Springer objected to this testimony throughout as not relative to the trial, but was overruled.

Bishop said Cunningham had visited him once before and that suspended patrolman Robert Carroll and Louis Stuttler, also had talked to him.

Q — In the spring of 1954, what do you remember about this incident?

A — I can't be sure.

Q — What did you tell me the other night?

Springer objected here.

Q — On Tuesday night, what did you tell me about Jerry Raimond driving the car?

Springer objected again. On further objections by Springer and Feckett the jury was excused while the attorneys discussed Bishop's written statement.

Joe Berman, owner of the lumber company which was allegedly entered by the defendants, went on the stand at 10:30 a.m. He testified under questioning by the prosecution and defense that he had not known of nor had reported to the police a burglary on June 10, 1954, but he also said that unless a large amount of lumber was taken, the loss would not be noticed.

"We wouldn't know if perhaps 50 or 60 pieces of lumber were taken," Berman said.

Holiday Traffic Toll Totals 94

Falls Below Figure Predicted For Holiday

By The Associated Press

The nation's traffic deaths on the Memorial Day holiday appeared to have totaled less than the 100 predicted by the National Safety Council.

Latest figures showed at least 94 persons killed in traffic accidents over a 30-hour period starting at 6 p.m. Tuesday and ending Wednesday midnight.

In other violent deaths, 29 persons drowned and 28 others were killed in miscellaneous accidents.

111 On Non-Holiday

The over-all total compared with 111 reported in an Associated Press survey May 16, a nonholiday Wednesday. That day's toll was 70 traffic deaths, 8 drownings and 33 deaths from miscellaneous causes.

In Chicago, Ned H. Dearborn, council president, reporting an all-time high traffic death toll for both April and the first four months of 1956, said "there is still time" to halt the trend toward a new record number of fatalities on the highway.

Keller, Equizi Appear On Steve Allen Show

Dave Keller and George Equizi of Salem, members of the Sesquicentennial steering committee, appeared last night about 12:35 a.m., on the Steven Allen "Tonight" television show.

Keller and Equizi presented bearded bandleader Skitch Henderson with a Brothers of the Brush badge and Steve Allen with a shaving permit.

The two Salem men made the trip in order to publicize the city's Sesqui celebration. They were dressed in full Sesqui costume as they were called up on the stage by Allen.

500 Attend Dedication Of Lisbon Swim Pool

LISBON — About 500 persons attended the dedication of the New Sadie VanFossan Swimming Pool on Cedar St. Wednesday at 2 p.m.

The delivery of the pool to the community was made by G. C. Rauch, chairman of the swimming pool commission. Mayor Wilbur Warren accepted the pool on behalf of the community.

The dedication was given by Rev. Paul T. Gerrard, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. Selections were presented by the Lisbon High School band.

Open house was held at the pool from 3 to 4 p.m., after which the pool was formally opened.

Organization Meeting Set On Extension Work

There will be an organization meeting for the extension work from Geneva College at United Local School at Newgarden Tuesday at 8 p. m.

This work consists of eight semester hours in animal biology. Dr. John S. McIsaac from the college will be present to answer questions. Classes beginning June 11 will be held five mornings a week for eight weeks.

Greenford Seniors Have Graduation

GREENFORD — A capacity audience witnessed the largest graduating class of Greenford High School Friday evening when 15 girls and 12 boys graduated.

Dr. J. R. Elford of the Trinity Methodist Church of Youngstown gave the principal address.

Rev. D. H. Funk of the Concord Presbyterian Church rendered the invocation and benediction and the school band played two selections.

Achievement Night was held last Wednesday evening beginning with coverdish dinner. Supt. John Pugh presented Miss Laverna June Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bailey, and class valedictorian; and Larry Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bennett and salutatorian, who spoke.

William Charlton was awarded third place in the Northeastern State Scholarship test in English given recently. Other awards were presented to the spelling winners in each of the grades from second through eighth.

Other awards went to the Junior High track teams who won honors at the Boardman track meet, high school track winners and the baseball team, band members who received a superior rating at Denison University.

The achievement program was sponsored by the PTA. At the business meeting the PTA planned for an ice cream festival to be held in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crawford announce the engagement of their daughter, Joanne to Richard Hiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hiner.

The marriage will be the event of July 7 at the Greenford Lutheran Church.

A reception will follow in the church parlor. No invitations will be sent but all friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Both are Greenford graduates. Miss Crawford is employed at the Youngstown Kitchen Division of the American Standard Co. in Salem and Hiner is employed at the Salem Deming Co.

Sunday morning the collection taken during the Sunday School hour will be given to the Bunker Hill church building fund. The church was recently demolished by a windstorm.

Jerry and Vesta Kindig spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Kindig.

News of the World in Pictures

MIDDLE OF NOWHERE—An RCAF helicopter arrives at a barren site somewhere along the Mid-Canada detection line across North America. The 'copter is playing a vital part in freighting building materials and supplies to inaccessible sites.

OLD CANNON 'ROARS'

Powder is rammed in. Gun overlooks the Potomac.

CANNON fire echoed from old Fort Frederick, in Maryland, recently, but no one called for the state militia to intervene because it signaled the start of the fort's 200th anniversary. It is the oldest surviving fort of the days of the Indian raiders. Men from the Clear Spring, Md., area, all wearing beards and Yankee soldier uniforms, loaded the fort's old Civil war cannon with black powder and fired it. They used newspapers to make wads to hold the powder in place. It took four tries before the cannon actually went off. After the firing, one of the boys beat a drum and called the other "soldiers" to see the damage done by the "blast." The fort was built near Clear Spring as protection against Indians. In Civil war, it served the Northern forces as a defense point along the Potomac river, but no serious fighting raged around it. It's a popular tourist attraction.

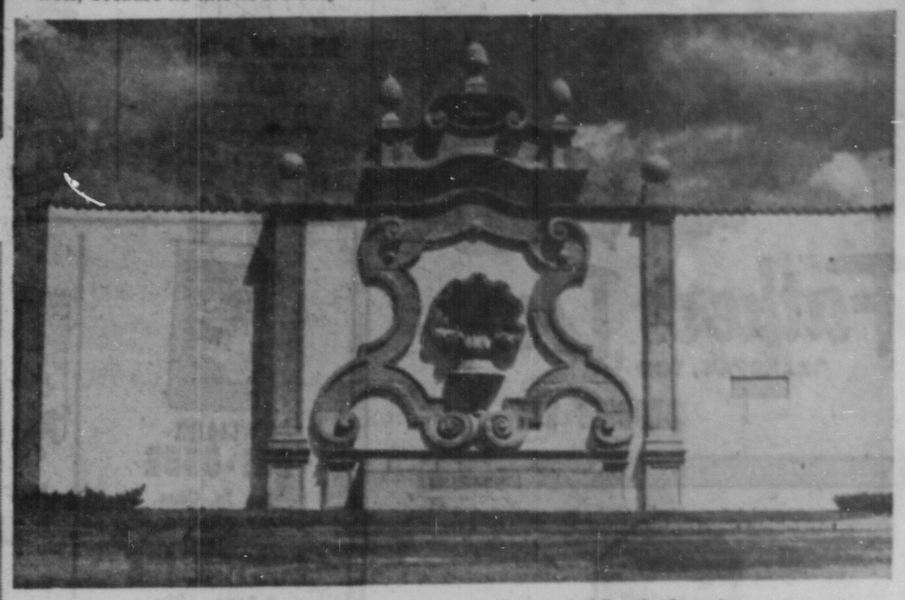
A SIGNAL HONOR—Paul Swaffar, secretary of the American Hereford association, makes 17-year-old Shirley Ann McIntyre very happy as he hands her the group's Junior membership No. 1 in Kansas City.

THEY'RE ALL DOLLS—When the mother of three baby squirrels was killed by an auto in Oconomowoc, Wis., the Edward Conrad family sort of adopted them. Ed, 4, is feeding one of the squirrels while the others wait.

HISTORIC SIGHT—Joan Waller, a senior at the College of William and Mary, poses on a fence at Jamestown, Va., site of first permanent English settlement in America. It will celebrate 350th anniversary in 1957.

STAY 'WAY FROM HIS DOOR—Jackie Costello isn't scared of this big, bad European wolf, because he knows it's only stuffed. Animal is part of carnival in New York.



A TOKEN OF FRIENDSHIP—From the people of Brazil, in South America, comes this monument—the Chafariz dos Contos (Fountain of Tales)—to the people of Brazil, Ind., a city of 10,000 persons. The green, yellow and blue monument is to be dedicated in Brazil with a parade. Indiana's Gov. George N. Craig and Mayor Ted McCoy will accept monument from Brazilian ambassador Joao Carlos Muniz.

BEAST AND THE BEAUTY—Lovely Yoko Kashiwagi should get an A for effort for the way she seems to approve of the horrible makeup British actor Anthony Quinn uses for his role as Quasimodo, the hunchback in the movie, Notre Dame de Paris.

Last Saturday we were very short of help and we hope that we did not inconvenience too many customers by having to wait so long to get the meat they wanted. But if you remember, last Friday and Saturday until six o'clock were beautiful, warm days and we had to get some corn planted so as to have more good dry-fed cattle that many people desire. We will try from now on to have enough help to cut and wrap the meat the way you desire it.

Two-Layer Bar Cookies

Two-layer bar cookies are heavenly to eat. The bottom of the cookie is usually a rich buttery pastry, the top a sweet concoction holding a number of good things.

If you want a luscious tidbit to serve to your Ladies' Club, do try our bar-cookie recipe. Tea and lemon with the cookies will contrast with and complement their sweetness.

Flaked coconut goes into these cookies, to their benefit. This comparatively new product comes in paper-thin flat shreds that are attractively feathery.

Coconut Dreams

Ingredients: 1 cup (not sifted) flour, 2 tablespoons plus ½ cup light brown sugar, ½ cup (¼ pound) butter or margarine, 2 eggs, ½ cup light corn syrup, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2/3 cup flaked coconut, ½ cup chopped (medium fine) walnuts.

Method: Stir the flour and 2 tablespoons brown sugar together. Cut 2 squares (2 tablespoons) from the butter; melt them and reserve. With a pastry blender, cut the remaining 6 tablespoons of the butter into the flour mixture until the fat particles are tiny. Pat mixture into the bottom of a baking pan (7 by 11 by 1½ inches). Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 20 minutes; remove from oven and allow to stand while mixing topping. Beat eggs enough to combine yolks and whites; add corn syrup, the remaining ½ cup brown sugar, the reserved 2 tablespoons melted butter and the vanilla; after each of these is added, beat enough to blend. Stir in coconut and walnuts. Pour mixture over top of baked pastry. Return to moderate (350 degrees) oven and bake 25 minutes, or until topping is lightly browned around edge and looks set; a cake tester inserted in the center will come out clean. Place pan on rack to cool. While cookies are still warm, cut into 24 squares with a sharp knife; clean knife blade in hot water if cookie topping sticks to it during cutting. Remove squares carefully with a spatula; place on rack until entirely cold. Store in tightly covered container.

Family Coconut Tree

Well, so much for Ma and the ladies. Here's how to please the other members of the family.

The small-fry contingent: vanilla pudding with a marschino cherry nestling in a snowy nest of flaked coconut.

The teenage set: a sundae made from vanilla or chocolate ice cream, bananas, crushed pink pep permint candy, chocolate fudge sauce and flaked coconut. It sounds disastrous, but they love it.

Pa, plus sisters, cousins and aunts: Angelfood cake (homemade, from a mix or bakery-bought) cut into three layers and sandwiched together with lemon filling (made from a mix) and the whole covered with sweetened whipped cream and studded with flaked coconut.

Grandma and Grandpa: Old fashioned Ambrosia. Rounds of membrane, free orange and sliced bananas are arranged on a glass serving plate — the banana is sprinkled with lemon juice, the orange with sugar. Then the pretty show piece is sprinkled with flaked coconut and chilled before serving. No geriatrics expert could say this dessert isn't fitting and nutritious.

Highlight For Wedding Buffet

Yesterday we described a wedding reception buffet for 40 guests that cost only $32.26 to serve. This was the menu: Twin heart avocado molded salad, chicken flower pot sandwiches, cream cheese and fresh vegetable sandwiches, wedding cake (made at home with cake mixes), fresh fruit champagne or fresh fruit reception punch, salted nuts and mints.

Here are two of the recipes:

Twin Hearts Avocado Mold

Soften 6 envelopes unflavored gelatin in 1½ cups cold water. Add 3 cups hot water and stir until dissolved. Blend in 1 cup sugar, ½ teaspoon salt, 1½ cups fresh lemon juice, and 2 cups fresh orange juice. Mix ¼ cup of this mixture with a few drops of red vegetable coloring and pour into heart indentations in bottom of 2 oiled, 6-cup heart-shaped salad molds. (If your molds are plain on the bottom, omit this step). Chill until firm, 45 to 60 minutes. While the red hearts are chilling, beat 4 cups avocado puree into remaining gelatin mixture and leave at room temperature until the hearts have set. Spoon gelatin-avocado mixture over the hearts very gently, being careful not to disturb them. Chill until firm and ready to serve. Unmold onto serving platter. Write names or initials of the bride and groom on the hearts with stiff mayonnaise forced through a decorator's tube. aGrnish with chicory, fresh strawberries and avocado or cantaloupe balls. Note: Cost for 2 heart molds — $3.45.

Chicken and Fresh Vegetable Flowerpot Sandwiches

Combine 2 cups finely chopped cooked chicken, ½ cup finely chopped celery, ½ cup finely shredded fresh carrots, 2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice, 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper, and 3 tablespoons mayonnaise. Mix well and chill while preparing the bread. Cut unsliced 2-day old, firm bread 1¼ inches thick. Cut in rounds with a 1½ inch cookie cutter. Then shape to resemble little pound flower pots by pulling out centers of rounds and filling them with the chicken salad mixture. Stick a small sprig of fresh parsley in center of each to resemble a growing plant. Place on a tray, cover with a damp cloth and store in refrigerator until ready to serve. Note: Total cost, $1.75.

Offer June Brides Cooking Suggestions

The French are masters of fish cookery. We asked Louis Vaudable, noted gourmet and proprietor of Restaurant Maxim's in Paris, to tell our June brides how to prepare fine fish dishes. Monsieur Vaudable, now in the United States, replied as follows:

Broiling is a favorte way of cooking fish in France. Because fish is already tender when it comes from the water, it needs only enough cooking to develop flavor.

Season the fish, whole or split, with salt, a bit of thyme or parsley. Brush with olive oil if it is not naturally fat, then run under a preheated broiler (about 500 degrees F.) for a very few minutes, depending on its thickness.When it begins to brown, turn, season and oil if necessary, and broil until it flakes easily when tested with a fork. That's all. Longer cooking will make it tough and dry. Serve immediately.

A more sophisticated French way of cooking fish, one whose flavor justifies the extra work, is this Halibut Mousse.

Chop 1 pound of halibut very fine or put it through a fine grinder. Then pound it in a mortar if you have one, or work it in a bowl with a wooden spoon until it is as fine as you can make it. Now, place the bowl in a larger one filled with cracked ice. Gradually beat in three egg whites, using a wire whisk or wooden spoon, until the egg whites are absorbed and the mixture is smooth. Then gradually stir in 1 cup heavy cream until completely absorbed. Add some salt, a sprinkle of pepper, a pinch of nutmeg, and if desired, a dash of cayenne or pinch of finely chopped fresh dill. Keep on ice one hour. Then butter a fish mold. Stir the fish mixture well to blend. Pour it into the mold. Cover with waxed paper and place in a pan containing one inch of hot water.

Bake at 350 degrees F. 25 minutes, or until set. Serve it with a sauce that compliments the flavor of the fish but which does not compete with it.

At our restaurant in Paris, with this mousse we serve Sauce Ile de France. Its veal-and-vermouth base is sheer flattery for the superb mousse.

Sauce Armoricaine, with the slightly stronger flavor of lobster, is also good company.

Whatever sauce you choose, be sure to allow the time needed to make it. If you use one of the frozen sauces, heat it while the mousse bakes.

Prune Chiffon Meal Finisher

Take note of this dessert. Everything that goes into it may be kept on your pantry shelf. When you're in the mood for a light and airy sweet, whip through this recipe and you'll have a delightful ending for a meal.

Baby-food strained prunes, unflavored gelatin and evaporated milk (whipped) are the main ingredients. A teaspoon of aromatic bitters points up flavor. The lemon juice called for may be frozen, bottled or fresh and cream may be used instead of evaporated milk.

Prune Chiffon

Ingredients: 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, ½ cup cold water, ¼ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 cans (5 ounces each) strained cooked baby-food prunes, 1 teaspoon aromatic bitters, 3 tablespoons lemon jjuice, 2-3 cup icy-cold evaporated milk (whipped).

Method: Sprinkle gelatin over the cold water in top of double boiler. Place over boiling water and stir until gelatin dissolves. Add sugar and salt; stir until sugar dissolves; remove from heat. Stir in prunes, aromatic bitters, and lemon juice. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold into whipped evaporated milk or cream; pile gelatin mixture into sherbet or parfait glasses and chill until firm. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Note: To whip evaporated milk: pour the milk into a refrigerator tray; chill in refrigerator freezing compartment until ice crystals form around edges of tray — 25 to 30 minutes. Turn the icy milk into a bowl and beat rapidly with a rotary beater (hand or electric) until stiff. The 2-3 cup of evaporated milk called for in the recipe will make 2 cups when it is whipped When whipped, evaporated milk triples in volume.

Flavor Tips

Aromatic bitters are often used in before-dinner beverages, but many cooks also like to use the bitters in preparing food. Here are ideas:

1. Stuffing eggs? Add a dash of the bitters along with mayonnaise, salt, and pepper to the egg yolk filling.
2. Mixing up a cheese spread? Use butter, soft cheddar cheese and aromatic bitters to enliven the mixture.
3. Glazing a ham? Be generous in adding aromatic bitters to your sugar mixture and you'll have a rich mahogany colored coating.
4. Fruit punch for company? It will be piquant with bitters.
5. Creamed chicken and ham for Sunday night supper? Add a little aromatic bitters to the sauce.
6. Tomato aspic for salad? It takes kindly to the bitters.
7. Old standby soups take on new interest with aromatic bitters.
8. Cutting up oranges, grapefruit and pineapple for a fruit cup? Add a little of the bitters.
9. Shrimp your first course for dinner? Serve it with a tomato cocktail sparked with a dash of aromatic bitters.
10. Apple pie for dessert? Sprinkle a little of the bitters over the sliced sweetened apples.
11. Stewing prunes? After they are cooked, stir in sugar and aromatic bitters to taste.
12. A spaghetti supper coming up? Add a dash of the bitters to your tomato-mushroom sauce.

Boeuf Bourguignonne Famous French Stew

Boeuf Bourguignonne is a famous French beef stew. We asked Louis Vaudable, proprietor of the internationally famous Restaurant Maxim's in Paris, to tell our June brides how to prepare it as the French do. This is what Monsieur Vaudable, now visiting the United States, told us:

For six servings, use two pounds of top round of beef, cut into two inch squares. Peel a dozen white onions; wash a dozen small mushrooms; pare, then dice three carrots.

Into a Dutch oven, or a deep saucepan with a closefitting cover, drop three tablespoonfuls of butter, or a half dozen oneinch squares of salt pork. When melted and hot, add the beef. Saute until browned nicely on all sides. Now if you like, warm three or four tablespoons of brandy in a small saucepan. Light (carefully) with a match, and pour it over the beef. Let it burn out. (This improves the flavor even more). Then remove the beef from the Dutch oven. In the same fat in which you butter, or a half dozen one-inch tables until they begin to brown. Remove them to a plate (refrigerate them while the meat cooks). Into the fat left in the Dutch oven, stir three tablespoons flour and brown it. Then stir in ¾ cup beef bouillon and ¾ cup burgundy. Cook until slightly thickened.

Now add your choice of seasoning. For tomato, stir in a teaspoon or two of tomato paste, no more. If you prefer herbs, add a pinch of marjoram or thyme or both instead of tomato. Don't add more. Remember that it is easy to add more if you like, but not at all easy to correct seasoning when too much has been added.

If you like, you may also add ½ cup frozen Marchand de Vin sauce that has been heated in a small saucepan.

Now return the beef to the Dutch oven. Cover. Simmer gently two hours. Add the vegetables. Cover. Simmer one hour longer.

Remember Boeuf Bourguignonne when you want something special for a party. Tastes even better if you make it the day ahead and reheat it. Wonderful dish for help yourself buffet dinners. In France it is always accompanied with a tangy green salad and a glass of red wine.

Paris Restauranteur Gives Food Tips

Louis Vaudable is one of the most distinguished gourmets in the world. Proprietor of the glamorous restaurant Maxim's in Paris, he is now visiting the United States. We asked him to tell young American brides how to prepare fine food Here is his first lesson:

All the French share a love, almost a reverence, for fine food. Since love of good eating is common to Americans, too, there is no reason why Americans cannot enjoy the same delicious cooking as their friends across the sea.

First, you must have the desire. Then, you need the right recipe. Buy new cookbooks to find new ideas. Swap recipes with food-loving friends. Sample the specialties of good restaurants.

Now you need the ingredients. Can you do as the French housewife does?

The French woman goes about her marketing in person, picking out the potato, the leek, the egg, the cheese that will make the dish taste the way she wants. With your fabulous supermarkets, you should have no trouble finding the right ingredients. Try to shop in person.

You must allow the time that a dish deserves to be given if it is to be at its best. Don't attempt a dish until you have the time to do it right.

Marchand de Vin sauce is an example of what time and the extra ingredients does for a dish. Maxim's chefs take 18 hours to prepare the sauce. It wouldn't taste the same if it were made in a hurry.

Here's how you should use your sauces as the French do: Prepare the sauce, taking the time needed for that "marriage" of flavors; or buy a gourmet sauce, already made and frozen to keep its flavor intact.

Then remember that good as it is, it will be even better by some cooking with the food with which it is to be served. So blend it with the pan juices, or the marinade, or some of the liquid in which the food has been cooked. Let it simmer a while. Taste; taste again, and simmer until the point of perfection is reached. Then, and only then, serve it proudly, knowing that you have mastered one of the elements of French cookery.

Primary, Mrs. Harold Wulf, Dorothy Knopp and Mary Lou Barclay. The subject will be "Our Bible."

Junior, Mrs. Donald Fogg and Rev. James Cope, topic, "Learning to Know the Old Testament." Others will be assisting.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Childers of West Middletown and Mr. and Mrs. Coley Fox of Palmyra were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Morton.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kibler of Columbus were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morrow.

Rev. William A. Atchison of Damascus was guest speaker when the annual banquet for the Christian Endeavor Societies of the Damascus Quarter of Friends was held at the Lexington Grange Hall Friday evening.

Lambert Huffman of Canton was toastmaster, and choruses were sung in opening the meeting. A comedy skit was presented by the Alliance Christian Endeavor Society, songs were sung by a quartet from Cleveland Bible College and a horn duet by Edward and Perry Rawson of Cleveland.

Officers were elected when the Garfield Merry Maidens 4-H Club met at the home of Mrs. Earl Blake, advisor. Judy Knopp is assistant advisor. Officers are president, Dorothy Knopp; vice president, Judy Leggett; secretary, Sandra Kay Alesi; treasurer, Sunny Earley; recreation leader, Bette Jean Morrow. Roll call at the next meeting will be answered by giving a recipe for sandwich filling.

The Butler Rural Advisory Council of the Farm Bureau Association was entertained by Mrs. Ethel Cameron assisted by Mr. and Mrs. James Cameron Friday evening.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. T. C. Warrington, and the discussion "Are Our Schools Good Enough?" was led by T. C. Warrington.

Lunch was served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Shelton Harrington of Berlin Center. A picnic is planned for next month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clark. The date will be announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bardo, Mrs. Frank Denny and Misses Mary French and Daisy Stackhouse attended the wedding of Miss Margaret Gahagen of Louisville and Walter Townsend of RD, Salem in the Evangelical United Brethren Church in Louisville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts entertained at a gathering honoring their daughter Harriet Sue in observance of her seventh birthday anniversary. A picnic dinner with a lambie cake a feature, was served with eighteen in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Goist and sons of Columbiana were out of town guests. Gifts were presented the honoree and the time was spent in visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Mott and two daughters of Council Bluffs, Iowa were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Warrington. They were enroute to Barnesville to attend commencement activities at the Friends Boarding School June 2. Their daughter Wilma is one of the graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McPherson of Gas City, Ind., are spending this week with Rev. and Mrs. C. R. McPherson and family here, and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Naylor of R. D. Beloit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Thomas of Whittier, Calif., are visiting relatives and friends here for a month. They have rooms at the home of Mrs. C. T. Shreve.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis L. Richardson and son of Portsmouth, Va. and Rev. and Mrs. Walter Bailey of Williamsport, Pa. are visiting their parents, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Bailey.

Mrs. Fred Solmonson of West Liberty and Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton and son of Delaware visited Rev. and Mrs. Owen Glassburn and family over the weekend.

Louis M. Carr of East Canton spent Sunday with his son-in-law, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Israel.

Rev. Charles Bailey, who is receiving treatment in the Central Clinic hospital in Salem, is confined to an oxygen tent.

STILL KICKING — Grandmothers feel younger all the time, this conga-dancing group seems to indicate. The "girls" were getting the first convention of the Associated Grandmother Clubs of Washington, Inc., off to a good start in Seattle, Wash. Leading the line is Mrs. Rose Lander of Everett, Wash., a mere 79 years old.

TERRIFIC CRASH — Four people were gravely injured when their sedan went out of control on a hill in Tacoma, Wash., ramming into a trailer truck. Mrs. Alice Steverson, the driver, is shown still pinned in the front seat. Other victims were a two-year-old girl, and eight-month-old baby, and the driver of the truck who was thrown from his cab.

Have you wondered what gives John Liber's Prize Brand Bacon that distinctive old country - smoked flavor?

It's the curing process — 21 days over apple and hickory smoke. It takes time to impart that tangy, distinctive flavor you remember from "down on the farm." No one has ever been able to duplicate that smokehouse flavor.

HELD IN TRACTOR THEFT

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A 14-year-old Muskingum County boy, accused by police of stealing a Washington County farmer's trac- for last week, is in the custody of his parents today, awaiting a hearing before Juvenile Judge Holland M. Gary.

The boy was captured in Logan, W. Va., two days later after the farmer, Frank Stacy, of near Marietta, reported his tractor missing.
